A THUNDER STORM MARS EXERCISES

GERMAN-AMERICAN ALLIANCE

M. G. Tiencken Temporary President —To Complete Organization at Wrightsville Beach Friday— Prominent Speakers.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Newbern, N. C., July 27.—A violent and sudden thunder storm this afternoon prevented the carrying out of the programme arranged for the convention of the North Carolina State Firemen, in session here in connection with the great Bi-Centennial celebration.

In the morning the delegates and companies marched through the streets in parade, the fire apparatus being almost concealed under the elaborate decorations. The unfinished programme of today will be carried out tomorrow.

As a pleasing feature of the Bi-Centennial a North Carolina branch of the National German-American Alliance was organized today, a temporary organization having been formed with M. G. Tiencken, of Wilmington, temporary president; J. G. L. Gieschen, of Wilmington, secretary, and W. F. Aberly, of Newbern, vice president.

A meeting will be held Friday, at Wrightsville Beach, Wilmington, for the purpose of effecting a permanent organization.

Addresses were made at the meeting today by Dr. John I. Goebe of the University of Illinois; Adolph Timm, secretary of the National German-American Alliance, of Philadelphia, and Hon. John D. Cappleman, vice president of the Southern Railroad, of Charleston, S. C., who accompanied the Wilmington delegation.

It was not until an early hour this morning that the annual convention of the State Firemen's Association adjourned after being in session practically all the afternoon. Representatives were present from 76 of the 100 companies in the Association, some 300 firemen of the State being in attendance. The welcome address was by Mrs. S. M. Brison and the responses by Chief S. G. Barnard, of Asheville; Chief Clark, of Southern Pines, and Chief Turner, of High Point. Chief Schnibben, of Wilmington, was made chairman of the Credentials Committee, and the report was accepted in the afternoon. Reports of officers showed the organization in fine shape with an increasing membership. President McNeill's 16th annual report was brief but very happy. The night session came on late after the street pageant, and was taken up largely with a discussion of the Firemen's Relief Fund, which was continued in the hands of the same committee. Shortly before midnight the election of officers was taken up and both President McNeill and Chief Barnard, of Asheville, were placed in nomination for President, the "old war horse" of the Cape Fear being elected for the 17th consecutive term in a vote of 102 to 43. Chief McNeill declared that opposition is healthy and if the vote had been close, he would not have accepted the election.. Hon. A. H. Boyden, of Salisbury, was elected first vice president unanimously while Chief Barnard, of Asheville, was re-elected second vice president. Secretary J. L. Miller, of Concord, and Treasurer R. C. Taylor, of Winston, were re-elected without opposition. M. S. Davis, of Louisburg, was elected statistician. Charlotte beat Greensboro for the next place of meeting by a vote of 106 to 36. The tournament will close with a grand ball Friday night.

Firemen's Parade.

Newbern, N. C., July 27.—After yesterday's big events, at which 20,000 spectators looked on, the State Firemen took possession this morning and held their big street parade. The various cities of the State were represented by their fire companies and the floats in the line of march gave added interest. An accident to the big float of the Newbern company was fortunately without very serious results. The framework on which 15 young ladies were seated collapsed into a mass of wreckage while turning a corner.

The contests for the $1,500 in prizes began late this afternoon by the hose wagon contests, seats for 2,500 are in the grandstand on George street near where the Royal Governor Tryon's palace stood. Just before the races begun a heavy shower fell and the 2,000 or more spectators were drenched to the skin. This shower put the track in such a bad condition that after it was over, the judges decided to hold the races over until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

The grand Colonial ball which was held at the Court House tonight was one of the main features of the day. Each of the participants wore Colonial costumes and the scene while the dances were in progress was indeed one to evoke admiration.

Tomorrow night an historical tableaux will be presented on East Front street. This will be followed by a grand display of fireworks.

STEDMAN IS NAMED IN FIFTH DISTRICT

Gallant Confederate to Lead Democratic Hosts in The Morehead District.

MEANS RETURN TO THE FOLD

All Factions Will Unite on Nominee. Nomination Came at 11:05 O'clock Yesterday Morning After All-Night Session.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Greensboro, N. C., July 27.—After an all-night session, the Fifth District Congressional Convention at 11:05 o'clock this morning on the 438 ballot, nominated the Hon. Charles Manly Stedman, of Guilford, he having received 277 votes, the number necessary to secure a nomination being 204.

In Major Stedman all factions have a nominee upon whom all can unite and who will bring Democratic victory in November, the district now being represented by John Motley Morehead. The result came after a hard-fought battle between Messrs. Stedman, Jones and Royster, the withdrawal of Mebane having been announced in this morning's dispatches. At times during the night there were attempts to ring in dark horses but these proved not pleasing to the great majority of the convention and it was generally conceded that one of the four gentlemen in the race would win. Up to the very last almost Judge Jones' supporters appeared confident, though as early as 4 o clock this morning there were signs of disintegration. At that hour the 413th ballot was taken and resulted as follows: Stedman 172.91, Jones 86.57, Royster 147.52. At that hour it was predicted that Major Stedman would be the nominee and this conclusion was not overdrawn.

All of the delegations were cheerful and the very best of good feeling prevailed throughout the balloting. While there was some shouting which was the natural accompaniment to a meeting of this kind there were no unwarranted demonstrations that cause unpleasantness and the meeting went off smoothly.

The result came after one of the most remarkable contests ever witnessed in North Carolina, covering a period of seven days and nights, during which there was an adjournment of two weeks. The fight has been stubborn, but in the main good natured.

Following the announcement the three candidates, Major Stedman, Judge E. B. Jones, of Forsyth, and General B. S. Royster, of Granville, were escorted before the convention and made rousing Democratic talks. Major Stedman is an old Confederate soldier, has been Lieutenant Governor of the State and is at present, by appointment of Governor Kitchin, president of the North Carolina Railroad Company.

This district two years ago overcame a normal Democratic majority of 3,000 and elected John M. Morehead, Republican, as Congressman to fill the seat previously held by Governor Kitchin.

Morehead has announced that he will not seek a re-nomination and has already started an active fight for the Republican State chairmanship.

Rejoicing in Fayetteville.

Fayetteville, N. C., July 27.—News of the nomination of Major Charles M. Stedman as Democratic candidate for Congress in the Fifth district was received here with enthusiastic demonstrations of approval, and his friends kept the wires hot with messages of congratulation. It was the chief topic of conversation on the streets and in thirty minutes the news had reached every quarter of the city. Major Stedman spent his boyhood and early manhood in Fayetteville, and it was from here that he entered the Confederate army, in which he was literally "First at Bethel and Last at Appomattox."

Through factional strife the Fifth district was lost to the Democrats in 1908 but with Stedman as their leader the party will present a solid front to the enemy, and his election is confidently predicted.

John M. Morehead, Republican, who now represents the Fifth district, will doubtless be re-nominated; but since his alliance with Marion Butler, who is now his political mentor, he lost popularity both with Republicans and near-Democrats.

Wilmington doubtless joins Fayetteville in rejoicing over Stedman's splendid victory, which was won over three of the leading Democrats of his district.

ANDREWS FLATS IN RALEIGH.

New Apartment House to Cost $10,000 Will be Erected

Raleigh, N. C., July 27.—A building permit is issued by the city for the erection of a $10,000 apartment house on Wilmington street, near Capital Square, to be known as the Andrews Flats. It is to be erected by William J. Andrews, son of Col. A. B. Andrews, vice president of the Southern Railway.

Another important building enterprise just started is a $20,000 building at Shaw University, to be used by the Leonard Hospital. There is also another $7,000 building for the Shaw University for which the building permit is just issued.

TEDDY GIVES HIS POLITICAL VIEWS

Ex-President Anxious to Enter Politics as Private Citizen.

TALKS FRANKLY TO VISITORS

His Attitude on State and National Politics Made Clear—The New York Situation Discussed. Talks of Bryan.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 27.—Those who heard Theodore Roosevelt talk at Sagamore Hill this afternoon came away with a sharply etched shadow picture of what his attitude will be in State and National politics.

Primarily, he wished to keep in the background in the approaching campaign for he feels that taking too prominent a part in it, he may be accused of assuming a dictatorship. These views Col. Roosevelt has explained to those who have come to see him recently. He tells his visitors that he is anxious to take a hand as a private citizen, but he is willing to go no further.

Broadly speaking, he will do all in his power to help the men who stood by him and his policies formulated during his years in the White House, but he is non-committal as to whether he expects to carry this to a point of coming out openly in favor of the Republicans all over the country whom he considers to be standing for his ideas. He does say, however, that he must forget factional differences and even party lines, and support the men and the things which he believes to stand for the best interests of the country as a whole. But he has not made up his mind when he will take any decided stand.

The Republican situation in this State is shifting so rapidly that the Colonel said he was having trouble keeping pace with it. During today's interview there were mentioned to him the names of Representatives Hamilton Fish and William H. Hotchkiss, State superintendent of insurance, as having been spoken of recently in connection with the gubernatorial nomination. He replied by naming over a whole list of men who have been mentioned, adding that he had no idea whatever as to who the best man would be. He repeated in substance his recent decision that the people must choose their man, and that his nomination must result from this fact, not because one man or one set of men wanted him. To this statement he added that he had not even decided whether to attend the Republican State convention at Saratoga.

Col. Roosevelt said he had not been reading up on Nebraska politics lately, and had not heard how Wm. J. Bryan had fared in the Democratic convention in that State. The interviewers broke the news of the setback to his former rival and the Colonel asked whether the differences of opinion had arisen because Mr. Bryan went too far or not far enough in his proposed temperance legislation. After he was told that the former seemed to fit the case there was nothing which he cared to add in comment on Mr. Bryan.

Teddy and Ohio Nominee.

Ex-President Roosevelt listened with great interest this afternoon to the news of the nomination of Warren G. Harding for Governor by the Ohio Republican State convention. He showed especial interest in the withdrawal of James R. Garfield as a candidate. He refused, however, to make any comment on the work of the convention, saying that he would have nothing to say for several days, if at all.

To Force Westinghouse From Electric Company

New York, July 27.—Almost on the eve of the annual election of officers of the Westinghouse Electric & Manufacturing Company Wall Street was surprised to get word of a fresh attack on the present management by President George Westinghouse, who is now at his country place at Lenox, Mass. It has been a matter of common knowledge that President Westinghouse has not worked amicably with the management which took charge of the company's affairs after the discharge of the receivers in 1908. In fact, during that time he has had two six months' vacations when the friction between him and the other officers, notably Robert Mather, chairman of the board, became acute. He is at present on one of these vacations, which was scheduled to last until Aug. 1, and Wall Street was inclined to regard the latest episode as a confirmation of rumors which have been current since the Spring that a new president would be elected this year. It was said with great positiveness in the street that Robert Mather, who came over to the company from the Rock Island at the time of the reorganization and has been the representative of the banking interests which rescued the company from the receivership, would be re-elected to his present post. Who the successor to President Westinghouse may be gossip had not decided, but it was said with seeming authority that the senior vice president, E. M. Herr, would be the choice of the banking interests who dominate the affairs of the company. Mr. Herr, like President Westinghouse, is a practical man and has been long identified with the electrical and mechanical end of the business.

THE BRADYS ARE CONVICTED

Defendants in "Green Swamp" Cases, Charged With Malicious Injury to Property, Found Guilty in Bladen Court.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Elizabethtown, N. C., July 27.—The three "Green Swamp" cases, one against Horace Brady, one against Horace and his father, J. W. Brady, and one against J. W. Brady, were tried together by consent at the special term of Bladen Superior Court in sesion here Monday. All the evidence had been completed yesterday evening whn argument to the jury began.

J. Bayard Clark, Esq., of the Bladen bar, opened for the State in a strong and convincing speech of about 40 minutes. He was followed by William J. Bellamy, Esq., of Wilmington, for the defense, who spoke 15 minutes. Then court took a recess till this morning. Then he finished in a strong plea for his clients. Mr. Bellamy was followed by Robt. Ruark, Esq., of Wilmington, who went over the testimony in a most effective and convincing speech for the State, of about 40 minutes. Next was C. Ed Taylor, Esq., or Brunswick, who made a strong plea in behalf of the Bradys. Solicitor Sinclair closed with his usual forceful plea for justice. Judge Lyon then charged the jury, going over the evidence carefully in his usual fair and impartial way.

The jury was composed of 12 of Bladen's good citizens and they were out only about two hours, returning a verdict of guilty. Judge Lyon, in imposing sentence upon the old man expressed his regrets for having to sentence him and gave him his choice of 12 months in jail either in Bladen or Brunswick counties. He chose Brunswick, his home county. He was turned over to Sheriff Knox to be taken back. All the other cases were submitted, and Solicitor Sinclair recommended leniency for the Brady boys, and Shade Bullard, as they were probably influenced by the old man. They were put under bond for their good behavior to appear from court to court to show they were complying. Court then adjourned for the term.

TAFT GETS NEWS BY WIRELESS

Learned of Nomination of Harding While Cruising Off Maine Coast. Pleased With Nominee— Taft Visits Portland.

Biffefordpool, Me., July 27.—Wireless telegraphy brought to President Taft today the news of the nomination of Warren G. Harding as the Republican candidate for Governor of Ohio. Mr. Taft spent all but the early forenoon hours at sea.

The President came ashore here at 5 P. M. He was expected to disembark immediately after the Mayflower anchored at 3 o'clock, but there was a long delay on shipboard due, it was said, to a break in the machinery of the President's power launch.

Mr. Taft seemed delighted over the outcome in Ohio. He seemed to take it for granted that everything had been harmonious. The President has a very high estimate of Mr. Harding and he gave every indication in his informal discussion of the situation today of looking upon Mr. Harding as about the strongest man the convention could have selected. When he gets to Beverly tomorrow Mr. Taft probably will send Mr. Harding a telegram of congratulation. The President made it plain today that at no time had he opposed the nomination of James R. Garfield.

Mr. Taft related in this connection an incident of last February, when Mr. Harding called on him at the White House in Washington. Mr. Harding said he had come to the President because he had heard Mr. Taft had decided to support Mr. Garfield for the nomination. The President replied that the report was entirely without foundation. He said he was not interfering in the Ohio situation any way and would not.

"Then," said Mr. Harding, enthusiastically, "I will be the next Governor of Ohio."

Mr. Taft said the nomination of Mr. Harding was most pleasing and he hoped the candidate's prediction as to his success would come true.

The President will not be ashore again until he reaches the Summer capital tomorrow afternoon.

Friends of the administration say that one feature of the Ohio situation which particularly pleased the President was the fact that the Cox faction

OHIO REPUBLICANS TO RUN HARDING

HELD PEACEFUL CONVENTION

Regulars and Progressives Both Pronounced the Platform Good— Nominee Former Lieutenant Governor—Contentment.

Columbus, O., July 27.—With a candidate for governor, who was nominated by a combination of "regulars" and "progressives" and a platform pronounced good by the latter section of the party, the Ohio Republican Convention broke up and went home today in a state of much contentment.

The ticket is made up as follows: For Governor, Warren G. Harding, of Marion; for Lieutenant Governor, Francis W. Treadway, of Cleveland; for Secretary of State, Granville W. Mooney, of Austinburg; for Attorney General, U. Grant Denman, of Toledo; for Treasurer of State, Rudy A. Archer, of Belmont county.

Warren G. Harding, the nominee for governor, was at various times in the preliminary squabbles of the convention described as "everybody's second choice." He is the editor or a newspaper at Marion; he has been Lieutenant Governor of the State, and has been a tentative candidate for Governor and United States Senator. He is known in the State as an effective stump speaker.

Until today, however, it had appeared beyond reasonable expectation that the convention could arrive at the consideration of any second choices without a long and bitter struggle. George B. Cox, of Cincinnati, had declared that he would stay with Judge Oren B. Brown, of Dayton, to the 30th ballot if necessary, the "progressives" were refusing to consider anybody but James R. Garfield, who was not, however, an announced candidate, and the men ordinarily identified with the National administration side and State politics were supposed to be hopelessly divided between Secretary of State Carmi Thompson and Mr. Harding. The finish of the fight was peculiar.

James R. Garfield announced that his name would not be presented as a candidate. Simultaneously Secretary Thompson withdrew from the field, and like Mr. Garfield, without any announced reason.

Mr. Cox broke the news of Secretary Thompson's withdrawal on the convention floor and the Brown men for the first time claimed a victory on the first ballot. Then the Cuyahoga county delegation of which Senator Burton was chairman, threw 76 votes to Congressman Nicholas Longworth.

Judge Brown, who was second on the first ballot with 413 votes, dropped to 363 on the second ballot, and the Longworth vote increased from 92 to 164. Nearly all the "progressives" were voting for Harding. The 96 Clevelanders, who all voted for Longworth on the second and third roll calls, were yelling wildly for the Cincinnatti man, on the third ballot, by the time the vote had reached Hamilton county, the Longworth candidacy was advancing in great strides.

Chairman Cox surrender at discretion. He arose and cast the 91 Hamilton county votes for Harding. All but 120 of the Brown supporters, part of which had voted before Hamilton county was reached, went to Harding, and the nomination was made by the good margin of 551 votes over the nearest competitor—the Cincinnati Congressman, who did not want to run for Governor. The nomination was made unanimous, and the fight was over.

The platform adopted, with only a few scattering cries of "no" contains a strong endorsement of the President, endorses him for President in 1912, and of the purpose and tendency of the tariff law demanded by the "regulars." It contains a plank in favor of the conservation of the country's natural resources and all but one of the State planks wanted by the "progressives."

The omission is that of the demand for a law for recall of unfaithful public servants.

None of the leaders interested committed themselves to any statements as to the outlook.

The ads will show you whether or not there's a chance today to buy that piece of furniture at your price did not succeed in controlling the convention.

The Presidential yacht remained in Casco Bay until well in the forenoon today. Mr. Taft went ashore at Portland for an automobile ride.

Landing in the Mayflower's launch on a little float here today, the President was met by a committee. The crowd waited the float down to such an extent that it began to go under when the President stepped aboard and his feet got quite wet. Some of the people were hurried ashore from the float and then the other members of the party landed.

Mr. Taft enjoyed a drive about the pool, visited the cottage of Mrs. Louis T. More, one of Mrs. Taft's sisters, held an informal reception at the Abenaki Club and made a little informal speech. The party will sail at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning for Beverly.

NO SETTLEMENT IN SIXTH DISTRICT

Conference of Party Leaders and Friends of Candidates Yesterday.

AN EXCHANGE OF LETTERS

Godwin Offers Primary, Clark Replies With Offer of Arbitrament by State Committee—Presence of Police—Other Notes.

Following numerous conferences of party leaders, the respective nominees, their managers and friends, in this city yesterday and last night, the tangled political skein in the Sixth Congressional District of North Carolina, following the sensational doubleheader convention at Wrightsville Beach a week ago today, seems no nearer unravelled than the day the dual meet was pulled off.

As a result of the conferences of the respective factions yesterday the Godwin forces were the first to bear what they chose to term an "olive branch" in the form of a proposition to submit all differences to a primary vote of the district, this being contained in a formal letter to the Hon. O. L. Clark, delivered to him while in the city by Geo. H. Bellamy, Esq., of Brunswick, chairman of the convention, which nominated Mr. Godwin, who was also in the city, Mr. Clark replying formally in a letter a few hours later, declining a primary on the ground that such would not be in conformity with either good usage or the plan of organization and placing the burden on Mr. Godwin to say whether or not he would join him in submitting the whole matter to arbitrament of the State Executive Committee as the only fair means of effecting a settlement.

These developments with a statement from Mr. Clark that at the proper time, his managers would be forthcoming with a reply to Mr. Clifford's presentation of his case as Mr. Godwin's manager, in yesterday morning's Star; a card from Mayor Thos. H. Wright, of the town of Wrightsville Beach, accepting full responsibility for the presence of policemen at both of the late conventions, and one or two comments and references pro and con from other sources, constituted about all that was "doing" during the day with the promise of a still further long and heated argument before all sides to the question are threshed out, eventually, most likely, before the State Committee, which will no doubt take cognizance of the situation, regardless of whether Mr. Clark's proposition is accepted by Mr. Godwin and his friends.

As before stated, the first overtures came from the Godwin forces in the following letter to Mr. Clark, pronounced by Mr. Godwin's supporters as an "olive branch" and repudiated by the Clark forces as a "shrewd political move." The letter follows:

Dunn, N. C., July 26th, 1910.

Hon. O. L. Clark, Clarkton, N. C.

My Dear Sir: Resting under the firm conviction that I have been regularly nominated by the Democratic Convention of the 6th District for the office of Representative in Congress, I nevertheless accord to you sincerity in your conviction that you have been nominated. We are both Democrats. We have always been Democrats, and the success of the party has always been dearer to us than the realization of our personal ambitions.

The contention between us, regardless of the merits of the case, is prejudicial to the interests of the Democratic party in our district and is not conducive to that harmony and uniformity of feeling essential to the success of our party.

Both of us, doubtless, are conscientious and sincere in the conviction that we are in the right, yet the contention between us is unsettled, and, until this is accomplished, lack of harmony in the party is the logical result. The arbitrament of the State Executive Committee, or of the Central Committee whatever might be their ruling could not be satisfactory to both of us. There is a final court of appeal for all contentions between rival candidates, and that is the people. Let us then in a spirit of fairness, placing party interests before personal ambition, refer this matter to a primary of the people and let them decide the issue. Should they declare in your favor, I earnestly pledge that I will exert myself to the utmost of my ability to secure for you the biggest Democratic majority ever rolled up in the Sixth Congressional District.

Requesting an early reply, and with sincere personal esteem, I am,

Very truly yours,

H. L. GODWIN.

Copies of Mr. Godwin's letter having been furnished to the press, Mr. Clark, who was in the city consulting with his friends and party leaders, was sought out and asked as to his acceptance or rejection of the proposition of Mr. Godwin. He replied that he would at once prepare his answer to Mr. Godwin and furthermore that both he and his party leaders utterly repudiated the statement of Mr. J. C. Clinord, published in the morning and afternoon papers, as an absolute perversion of the facts in the case as to the convention; that a statement for publication is being prepared by the proper authorities correctly reciting all the facts relating to the convention and nomination, which has resulted in the

FOR CURRENCY ASSOCIATION.

Appeal of Secretary MacVeagh Heeded by Other Cities.

Washington, July 27.—First Washington and then Atlanta and New York, with a number of other cities close in their wake is the way the programme now appears for the creation of national currency associations to provide additional currency, to be issued by the banks whenever it is deemed best in financial crisis.

The Washington association was organized soon after the approval of the Aldrich-Vreeland Act of March 30th, 1908. Obstacles relating to subsequent withdrawals of banks forming the association stopped final approval of all other organizations including those formed at New York City and at Atlanta.

Notice of the Atlanta organization was filed two years ago. The members were 17 banks in the vicinity of Atlanta. Following a brief corespondence their interest subsided, Secretary MacVeagh having meantime disapproved of a section in their by-laws providing for the withdrawal of a bank from the association, a section of which did not conform to the opinion of the Attorney General. New York banking interests virtually had the same experience.

Now both cities, following Secretary MacVeagh's recent letter urging creation of emergency associations during periods of calm, are going ahead, the withdrawal being possible on approval of the executive committee of the association and of the Secretary of the Treasury, provided the withdrawing bank has no outstanding currency. Atlanta is expected to act within a few days and New York banks are to meet for the purpose on Friday.

PREMIER ACCEPTS AMENDMENT.

Pronouncement Against Catholicism Shall be Eliminated.

London, July 27.—The King's accession declaration bill, in an amended form, passed its second reading in the House of Commons today by a vote of 410 to 84. The bill as it now stands provides that the pronouncement against Catholicism shall be eliminated, and the clause "and declare that I am a faithful Protestant" substituted.

The non-conformists showed strong opposition to the original substituting clause, which read "and declare that I am a faithful member of the Protestant church as by law established in England," and the premier finally accepted their amendment.

It is believed that all difficulties have now been removed and that the bill will survive the committee stage, and be accepted by the House of Lords without further trouble.

During the discussion in the Commons today several anti-Catholic societies gathered near the Parliament and a number of "no popery" placards were displayed.

NEGRO POET DISCHARGED.

Arrested for Vagrancy After Walking to Cambridge, Mass.

Cambridge, Mass., July 27.—W. Smith Jones, the negro poet, who was arrested last week on a charge of vagrancy after having walked from Natchez, Miss., to this city, in order to enter Harvard this Fall, was discharged in the district court today. Considerable interest has been taken in Jones by the authorities at Harvard and they have given him employment as a janitor. While in jail here Jones wrote a poem entitled: "Harvard Square", and dedicated it to the judge who dismissed his case.

RED BIRDS WIN FROM WILSON

Three Base Hit in Ninth With Two Down—Keating's Beautiful Stop and Fine Work by Westlake —Score.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Wilson, N. C., July 27.—The Birds feasted on "worms" this afternoon. The game was cinched in the second inning. They started their score getting chalking up one run in the first and in the fourth, they made the score five.

In Wilson's second four scores were made and there was no other excitement until Wilson's ninth when D. McGehan hit safe for three bags, when two men were down. The next man up fanned, and ended the agony. The features were errors by Champions and Keating's beautiful stop; also Westlake's star work.

AVIATOR COMES TO GRIEF.

Aero Dropped to Ground in Graveyard Hollow Yesterday.

New York, July 27.—While trying out a new engine in his aeroplane on the aviation course at Hempstead Plains today, Joseph Seymour, the aviator, came to grief at what is known as the Graveyard Hollow, a depression where experience has shown the downward suction of the wind to be exceptionally strong. Seymour was flying low when the aeroplane felt the downward pull and the machine dropped sharply hitting the ground with considerable force. Two wheels of the running gear were smashed, the ribs of the lower main plane splintered and the propeller broken.

Although the aviator was traveling at the rate of about 45 miles an hour when the accident occurred, he escaped injury.

DETECTIVES HUNT WIDER.

Determined Effort to Apprehend Defaulting Cashier.

New York, July 27.—The "gentleman's agreement" between the Russo-Chinese bank and its missing cashier, Erwin Wider, who is accused of embezzling $600,000 worth of stocks and bonds expired today when the district attorney's office was requested to take action and a private detective agency was put on the case.

The bank is now pretty well convinced that all the huge sum stolen has vanished beyond recovery in the whirlpool of speculation, and that further alliance with Wider is just so much time lost. A story that Wider had a power of attorney from the bank, finds full credence in Wall street and it was also asserted today that many of the certificates he disposed of were still in blank when they vanished.

If this can be proved it will make the task of the bank in recovering from brokers additionally difficult. Thus far there is nothing to indicate that any of the certificates were filled in with forged signatures. No suits against brokerage houses have yet been begun.

If Wider had a power of attorney, his task was only too simple for Assistant District Attorney Nott said that his conferences with officers of the bank indicated that the management took only the most elementary precautions against theft. As the case was reported to him, three or four persons had access to the safety deposit box in which the securities were kept and the contents were not regularly or even frequently checked up.

ARRANGED FOR HIS DEATH.

Saw Undertaker and Preacher Before He Suffered Attack.

New York, July 27.—Convinced that he was about to be fatally attacked with hydrophobia as the result of a bite of a pet cat, James E. Hardy, 57 years old, of Bayonne, N. J., a Standard Oil employe deliberately went about making arrangements for putting his affairs in order and arranging for his funeral.

Hardy had hard work convincing the undertaker and the Rev. Arthur Reilly, of St. Henry's Roman Catholic church which he attended, that he was in earnest when he consulted them regarding his coming demise. He was bitten by the cat two months ago, but suffered no inconvenience until recently when his arm began to swell. Even his physicians told him he was likely to recover, but the man felt convinced that he knew best and that hydrophobia was about to attack him.

Early today the hydrophobia developed itself as he believed it would. Hardy was hurried from his house to the hospital, but nothing could be done for him there and after an hour of agony he died.

MANEUVERS AT GETTYSBURG.

Regulars Worked on Another Battle Problem Yesterday.

Gettysburg, July 27.—The first and second West Virginia regiments entrained at the United States camp of instructions today for their homeward journey.

This afternoon the regulars were out working on another battle problem and the territory used for maneuvering resounded with the rattle of musketry. The militia were given extended work in exercises in attack during the morning and in the afternoon went through their final battalion drills.

All preparations are now being made for the big night maneuvers which will take place after sundown Thursday and Friday. The regulars and militia will all take part and will be excused from all other duties save routine work during the day preceding the night battles. The problems being mapped out provide for engagements through the woods and hills surrounding Gettysburg and the night work promises to be one of the big features of the present encampment. The search light will be used to discover the position of the opposing armies.

WON SECOND BOAT RACE.

Canadians Are Disappointed at Victory of Yankee Crew.

Manchester, Mass, July 27.—So decisive was the victory of the defender Massachusetts over the challenger St. Lawrence today in the second race for the Seawanhaka cup that several of the Canadians already have made arrangements to go home after tomorrow's race.

The conditions call for the best three in five. Massachusetts has won two straights. There was a difference of eight minutes and 28 seconds between the boats at the finish today.

Not only was the St. Lawrence beaten boat for boat, but the Yankee crew gave the Canadians a lesson in sail handling, while Designer and Skipper Ned Boardman outsailed Routh on the challenger.

The yachts will race over a triangular course tomorrow.

The elapsed time of the race was as follows: Massachusetts, 1 hour, 53 minutes, 13 seconds; St. Lawrence 2 hours, 1 minute, 41 seconds.

ACTION OF AUTO ASSOCIATION.

Premier Motor Company Declared Ineligible—Took Matter to Court.

New York, July 27.—The contest board of the American Automobile Associatin tday disqualified H. O. Smith and the Premier Motor Manufacturing Company and declared them ineligible for all contests held under the sanction of the board until further notice.

The action of the board is a direct reply to the temporary injunctions obtained by the company last week in the Brooklyn courts, restraining the board from delivering the Glidden trophy to the Chalmers Motor Company. The board holds that the Premier company, when it entered the Glidden tour, recognized the authority of the board and that its appeal to the courts from the jurisdiction of the board is a distinct breach of the contest rules and prejudicial to sport.

A referee awarded the Glidden trophy to the Premier car. The Chalmers company protested to the board and the board sustained the protest, reversing the referee.

"SMILING AL ORTH" SIGNED.

Will Play for Sailor Crew Remainder of Season—Fayetteville Today.

Al. Orth, of Lynchburg, Va., premier big Leaguer, last year part owner and captain of the Lynchburg team in the Virginia association, and all-round pitcher, outfielder and heavy hitter, was signed yesterday by the new Wilmington management and will report this morning for duty with the Sailor crew in the first of the series on the home grounds with the Fayetteville team.

The local management accounts itself exceedingly fortunate in landing Orth, who returned a few days ago from the New York Americans to his home in Lynchburg. He comes high but the Wilmington management realizes that now the fans have shown their faith in them, they must come forward with the goods on the field. Orth will be used in rightfield and Doak will be used as catcher when his hand is well. Orth is mighty with the stick and those who like to see the ball swatted are advised to look out for "Smiling Al," as he is familiarly known in fast company. The Fayetteville team will present many new faces when it lines up at League Park this afternoon and the fans will be anxious to size them up and get a view of Orth in action. Besides, the fans should give Wilmington an earnest of their good feeling under the new organization and turn out en masse. The coin will be appreciated and the teams can do better work with the mufflers off in the grandstand and on the bleachers.

GERMAN BANK FAILURE.

Liabilities Over Twelve Million With Capital of Three Million.

Dortmund, Germany, July 27.—The list of bank failures in Germany through excessive speculative operations has received a striking addition in the insolvency of the Niederdeutsche Bank, against which bankruptcy proceedings were begun today.

This action was preceeded by the arrest of Herr Ohm, one of the directors and the chief manager of the bank, who came to grief through his attempt to found numerous industrial companies, which were inadequately capitalized.

The liabilities of the bank are placed at $12,500,000, while its capital is $3,000,000. It is stated that the depositors will lose together part of their money, and the members of the board nearly the whole of their private fortunes. It is reported that Ohm owes the bank a huge sum and it is understood that other arrests are impend-

AN OLD FASHIONED FISH FRY

Young People Gather at Lane's Ferry —Interesting Historical Address by Mr. E. D. Pearsall—Story Told in Rhyme.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Point, N. C., July 27.—Last night at Lane's Ferry, Mr. W. H. Malpass gave a most delightful fish fry to the young people of Rocky Point and vicinity in honor of Mrs. Malpass' sister, Miss Ellie Cashwell, of Cumberland. It was a Simon pure fish fry with corn bread, fish caught from the historic Northeast river and "fried a-fluttering."

None of your ice-packed commercial kind kept over and embalmed but the genuine "Red Breast," "warmouth" and "raccoon perch" that grow here to perfection, all eaten by moonlight while the Rocky Point quartette discoursed sweet vocal and the string band, instrumental music, from the broad bosom of the placid river. The after-supper spiel of the occasion was delivered by Mr. E. D. Pearsall, who said in part:

"Friends, Rocky Pointers, Countrymen and Lovers:

"We are gathered at this historic spot on this the night of the 247th anniversary of the discovery of Rocky Point by Capt. Hilton and crew of the good ship Barbadoes, while on a voyage of exploration or discovery, looking for gold mines or any other old thing he might find. He landed right here on this mighty rock, almost as ancient as the historic Plymouth rock, spread his wares to tempt the wild Indian who roamed these fertile lands. In a few moment's time there arose a mighty war-whoop from the hordes of braves under the great Chief Gabon but Capt. Hilton was not only brave but diplomatic and drew from the old cabin hold a little brown jug of Santa Croix rum. Of this he gave the chief some whereupon the tomahawks were broken, the pipe of peace was smoked. When this brown jug was emptied others came forward and were enjoyed by the Indian chief and his braves. If you doubt my assertions, why go back of the old wigwam on the hill and see how many broken brown jugs are there. After old "Gobe" got mellow, Capt. Hilton drove a smart trade with him by giving some beads and hatchets, for all the land a skein of silk would surround. Old Gabe didn't know how many miles of silk were in that skein. It was a big trade and a goodly heritage. You live on that land. So do I. In the place of the silent forest whose only notes were the singing birds, the squall of the wild cat and the Indian war whoop, fine farms arise, churches, schools, factories and the "best government the world ever saw." In that day and time there was only one postoffice in the great State of North Carolina and a State that extended from the Atlantic Ocean to the Mississippi river. That postoffice was called North Carolina. I have in my possession copies of letters directed to that postoffice. Those letters came from my ancestors in County Downs, Ireland, and were brought over in small ships called packets and it cost 25c to mail one 100 miles and more the farther off it was to go. Roads there were none, only Indian trails. Communication was by sail and river. Later on the Rocky Point country was thickly settled. Many of the best families of our old State had homes there and in retrospection of those good old days, I am constrained to quote a few lines by "Bill Drake," Esq.

May I tell in rhymes of the good old times,
When Music and Frolic were spelled with a K?
When the high beaver hat and choker cravat
Were top of the fashion in Grandaddy's day?

See grandmammy sittin', a-noddin' and knittin,
And granddaddy restin', or snorin' away;
The log fire a-burnin', look at the girls turnin'
That old spinning wheel in your granddaddy's day.

'Twas somewhat entrancin' to see them a-dancin'
In homespun new dresses, a-dancing away;
For dancin' was dancin', no butterfly prancin'
Was done on the floor in Grandmammy's day.

For girls had no conception of Rural Free Delivery,
Of air-ship inventions, nor thought of auto-mobiles,
For when they wanted the mail, they just hit the trail
That led to the cross road store you see?

Yes, my young friends, history repeats itself. Two hundred and forty-seven years agone, the Indian graves on the moon lit banks of this beautiful river whispered words of love and swore eternal constancy to the dusky Indian damsel, and I methinks I see groups of two and two scattered around, that are making the same use of these historic grounds.

"'Twas ever thus." Faithfully,
YOUR GRANDPAP.

Samose Makes Thin People Fat, or J. Hicks Bunting Will Return Money.

In Samose are combined flesh-giving food elements that soon produce a steady and noticeable gain in flesh. Taken after meals, Samose mingles with the food, and causes it to be assimilated so that the fat producing elements are retained in the system, and you will soon get good flesh, steady nerves and a healthy body.

J. Hicks Bunting Drug Co. have seen such remarkable results following the use of Samose that they offer to pay for the treatment if it does not make thin people plump and rosy.

You run no risk whatever in buying Samose; it is a true flesh-forming food and is sold under the guarantee of one of the most reputable business houses in Wilmington to refund the money if it does not give complete satisfaction.

QUESTION OF SANITATION.

Friend of the Cow Tells Why She Should Not be Deported.

Editor Morning Star:—I have read in several of your recent issues of a movement to exclude all cows from the city on account of sanitary conditions here. This phraseology leaves the impression that cow stables are unsanitary, which is erroneous. It has long since been conceded that cow and horse stables were both healthy places, so much so that patients have been advised to make their beds there in order to regain their health. Upon questioning the Alderman who is pushing the matter, he admits the above statement to be correct, but says the trouble comes from the fly which carries all kinds of germs from place to place, and that the compost heaps in "cow lots" is the incubator that hatches the six hundred eggs laid by the fly each day. I am told that fly eggs incubate in about thirty days in the cow stable and in three days in a horse stable, so the horse stable is just ten times the menace to the public health as the cow stable, but not one word is said about removing the horses at all. Again, there are from 200 to 300 cows and about 2,000 horses in the city, so where lies the consistency? To my mind it has more of the appearance of a move to give the big dailies the monopoly of the milk business which means 12 1-2 to 15 cents per quart for milk. There has been two unsuccessful attempts already to charge 12 1-2 cents for it and the failure was largely if not solely due to the keeping of a few cows by private parties. I have kept cows and attended to them daily for ten years and knowing what it costs to produce milk and handle it, I am in a position to say at the present price of feed stuffs it cannot be wholesaled by the producers and retailed by a second party, and a living profit be derived at ten cents a quart. As further proof that cow lots and stables are not unhealthy, my father's family have lived, ate and slept within 30 feet of one for the past 25 years and there has never been a case of typhoid fever among us with a family of ten.

I consulted one of our leading physicians a few days ago on the question of removing the cows. He promptly replied he was opposed to it, that they had no part in the unsanitary condition of our city. It is passing strange that the cow should be upbraided so for things she is in no wise responsible for. If our city authorities would not leave wreaking sewers open to flow continuously in our streets for forty days at a time there would not be so many typhoid germs to be borne about by the flies. A few days ago your paper stated, "there was a certain block in which there were five cases of typhoid fever, and a cow stable was in that block," but you failed to say how many horse stables there were, and how many foul cisterns that had not been cleaned out for a year or more. Why not have our cisterns inspected? and also the sewerage in each residence. I never enjoy better health than when I am attending to a cow. Those of us who do this work realize the importance of keeping everything clean and we do it for our own preservation as well as to be able to furnish those who are sick with pure wholesome food that they may be brought back to health. I consider it as important to guard against smallpox as typhoid. A person who milks a cow is practically immune from smallpox. I have been vaccinated three times since I began to milk cows and it will not take on me. It may not be generally known but the art of vaccination was discovered through the milkmaids of a certain country where smallpox was epidemic. It was frequently noticed that a girl in the family was not infected with the disease and upon inquiry it was discovered she milked the cows. To my mind the proper course in this matter would be to screen the compost heaps, rather than exclude the animals from the city. I am in favor of improving the health conditions of our city and will lend any aid in my power that is consistent but it looks like poor and inconsistent reasoning to deport 200 cows and leave 2,000 horses. You would never miss the difference in flies.

"HEALTH."

Those Pies of Boyhood.

How delicious were the pies of boyhood. No pies now ever taste so good, what's changed? The pies? No. It's you. You've lost the strong, healthy stomach, the vigorous liver, the active kidneys, the regular bowels of boyhood. Your digestion is poor and you blame the food. What's needed? A complete toning up by Electric Bitters of all organs of digestion—Stomach, Liver, Kidneys, Bowels—Try them. They'll restore your boyhood appetite and appreciation of food and fairly saturate your body with new health, strength and vigor. 50c at Robert R. Bellamy's.

VERDICT AGAINST A. C. L.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., July 27.—The case of Henry Coleman, Sr., of Fair Bluff, vs. the Atlantic Coast Line, was closed last night and a verdict rendered in favor of Mr. Coleman for $4,000. This case has been of much interest in this county. Mr. Coleman was represented by Col. D. J. Lewis, of Whiteville, and Mr. Stephen McIntyre, of Lumberton. A number of cases were called but postponed. Judge Ferguson, of Waynesville, is presiding and has made a fine impression on our people.

The tobacco market opened in this county Tuesday, and the first sales were made. Prices were not satisfactory to growers, but the tobacco sold was first cutting and inferior. Prices will improve as the grade gets better. At Fair Bluff one of the largest crowds of farmers were present ever seen in that town. Ninety thousand pounds were sold there, and prices ranged from three to eleven cents per pound. There were ten buyers. At Whiteville 35,000 pounds were sold, the buyer for the American Tobacco Company getting about half.

Hon. Robert J. Gantt, of Spartanburg, S. C., who is on a visit to his parents in Whiteville, says the breaking of land by dynamite, as done last Spring by a farmer in Spartanburg county, is assuredly a success. The ground thas broken will this year make over two hundred bushels of corn per acre. He thinks dynamite will supplant the plow for breaking stiff clay lands.

The Atlantic Coast Line Railway proposes to haul broken rock and sand and improve the street around their depot in Whiteville. The town will put in a large sewer to carry off the water. This is a very bad spot in wet weather, and the contemplated improvements are greatly needed.

Sportsmen say partridges will be very scarce this season, as the extensive rains in the Spring drowned many young and destroyed their nests.

A THEATRE CHANGE.

Jno. L. Arrington, of Rocky Mount Invades Capital City Field.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., July 27.—Manager John L. Arrington, familiarly termed by friends as Rocky Mount's "Amusement King," has changed the scene of his endeavors and after a score of years during which time he has managed the vast majority of the attractions presented in this city, left by the morning train today for Raleigh where he has leased the Grand, a vaudeville theatre there, and with the starting of the show season it is his purpose to take advantage of option given him on the lease of the Metropolitan theatre. It is his intention to give to the theatre goers of the Capital City the best that is to be had in the line of road attractions. Being a person well known in the world of theatrics there is but little doubt that he may secure as good as there is to be had.

Mr. Arrington is still the owner of Oakland Park and he will conduct this popular place of amusement on the same high order, the managership now being in the hands of Mr. C. H. Arrington, a brother of the owner.

A Storekeeper Says:

"A lady came into my store lately and said:

"'I have been using a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove all winter in my apartment. I want one now for my summer home. I think these oil stoves are wonderful. If only women knew what a comfort they are, they would all have one. I spoke about my stove to a lot of my friends, and they were astonished. They thought that there was smell and smoke from an oil stove, and that it heated a room just like any other stove. I told them of my experience, and one after another they got one, and now, not one of them would give hers up for five times its cost.'"

Cautionary Note: Be sure you get this stove—see that the name-plate reads "New Perfection."

The lady who said this had thought an oil stove was all right for quickly heating milk for a baby, or boiling a kettle of water, or to make coffee quickly in the morning, but she never dreamed of using it for difficult or heavy cooking. Now—she knows.

Do you really appreciate what a New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove means to you? No more coal to carry, no more coming to the dinner table so tired out that you can't eat. Just light a Perfection Stove and immediately the heat from an intense blue flame shoots up to the bottom of pot, kettle or oven. But the room isn't heated. There is no smoke, no smell, no outside heat, no drudgery in the kitchen where one of these stoves is used.

WHY SO WEAK?

Kidney Trouble May be Sapping Your Life Away—Wilmington People Have Learned This Fact.

When a healthy man or woman begins to run down without apparent cause, becomes weak, languid, depressed, suffers backache, headache, dizzy spells and urinary disorders, look to the kidneys for the cause of it all. Keep the kidneys well and they will keep you well. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and keep them well. Here is Wilmington testimony to prove it.

Mrs. W. W. Mince, 706 S. Fifth St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "I am very thankful to Doan's Kidney Pills for the great benefit I received from their use. For a long time I was a victim of kidney trouble. The kidney secretions were unnatural and caused me much annoyance. My back ached almost constantly and some days I could hardly get around to do my housework. I heard so much about Doan's Kidney Pills that I procured a box at Robert R. Bellamy's Drug Store and began using them. They helped me more than any other preparation I had ever taken strengthening my back and kidneys and invigorating my whole system."

THE MORNING STAR

Published by the
WILMINGTON STAR COMPANY (Inc.)
Wilmington, N. C.

Entered as second-class matter at the postoffice at Wilmington, N. C., under act of Congress, March 2nd 1874.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORT.

Thursday, July 28th, 1910.

BRYAN WILL SPONGE OFF.

An Associated Press dispatch in the Star yesterday morning announced that the Nebraska Democrats in the State convention on Tuesday "wrested the leadership of their State organization" from the Hon. William J. Bryan on the issue of county option. The liquor question has been one of the burning issues in Nebraska and there are State-wide prohibitionists, local optionists, county optionists and advocates of the old plan of licensing the sale of liquor anywhere in the State.

Col. Bryan early in the fight declared for county option as a Democratic principle, as it left to the people the right of voting at the polls and deciding for themselves whether they wanted whiskey sold in their counties or not. He strongly advocated county option and has had strong opposition from a large element of his party. The campaign practically made Col. Bryan an issue, and we know the result as detailed in the Star's telegraphic columns yesterday morning.

The Nebraska Democratic State convention certainly was against county option by a considerable majority, but it is difficult to tell whether or not it was really anti-Bryan, for no doubt a great many Democrats who opposed his county option plank in the platform nevertheless are strong believers in him in a general way. The dispatches indicate, however, that Bryan has been deposed by the Nebraska Democrats and his State leadership is at an end. Of course, if that were true it would put an end to Col. Bryan's National leadership, as it would indicate that he not only has not got the State of Nebraska at his back, but is actually not in control of his own party in that State.

Col. Bryan declared that his defeat means that the liquor interests prevailed in the convention, so that a fight in Nebraska will be made by the Democratic party opposed to any further agitation of the liquor question while the Republican and Populist parties have adopted county option platforms. The issue will be watched with great interest, as the country will have the opportunity of seeing how the Nebraska Democrats will make out without the Bryan leadership. We do not take it, however, that a fighter like William J. Bryan will consider himself up against the ropes and absolutely licked. It is a difficult task to eliminate from public life or greatly lessen the influence of a man with the ability, strong character and great activity of Mr. Bryan, and we rather think that he will merely go to his corner, sponge off and come back.

Previous to the State convention it was heralded all over the country that Mr. Bryan had declared that if the convention did not adopt his county option plan he would insurge. The Nebraskan indignantly denied any such intention and declared in the convention that he "expects to aid in the work of the Democratic party, but I will not remain silent when a band of political assassins attack me." He said, furthermore, "I expect to be in politics for many years yet." This means exactly what the Star has said, Col. Bryan will keep on coming back in spite of being licked and counted out. He is the only living monopolist of irrepressibility.

It looks like the steam roller for the Hon. Spencer B. Adams, Republican State chairman, The Hon. John Motley Morehead and the Hon. Marion Butler are slowly but surely steering the roller in the direction of Adams.

If President Taft should rock the boat the lightweights in it with him would be given a good illustration of the law of gravitation. All hands would seek a common level at the bottom but that is one place where the lightweights would be on top.

In a speech in Kansas on Tuesday Senator Cummins, of Iowa, insurgent Republican, attacked the Steel Trust which is capitalized at one billion dollars, of which the Senator declared $800,000,000 is pure water. He declared that the entire plant of the Carnegie Company, a member of the trust, which could be replaced for $80,000,000, had been taken into the trust at $500,000,000 because the $80,000,000 investment pays a profit on $500,000,000 of fictitious value. This trust is enabled to earn huge profits on watered stock by reason of millions of dollars in benefits secured to it by a Republican tariff. If Senator Cummins and the voters of this country generally desire to put an end to such tariff outrages as he illustrates in his attack on the Steel Trust, they should quit insurging and join the Democratic party which constitutes the only hope of putting a stop to the Republican policy of taxing the masses beyond all reason for the benefit of bi-

REPUBLICAN DISSENTIONS.

That a great row is not only pending but is on in the Republican party in North Carolina, and that Republican insurgency exists in a great many States, might be more consoling to us if the Democratic party in the Old North State and in other Democratic States did not have troubles of its own. Nevertheless, it is interesting to note that the plot thickens for a tremendous disturbance of the faithful at the Republican State convention to be held at Greensboro August 10th.

It is nothing new for North Carolina Republicans to be divided against themselves, for their dissentions in the past have been a thing always to be expected when politics begin to stew. However, the Republicans generally have set the Democrats a good example by getting together by election time and voting the straight ticket as a general thing. Nevertheless, there promises to be a Republican row on a greater scale than ever when their State convention meets at Greensboro.

Republican troubles seem to have been accentuated nearly three years ago when the prospective President, the Hon. William Howard Taft, in his speech at Greensboro, fly-blowed the Republican party in North Carolina, in effect pronouncing it a disgraceful organization, reflecting on the party managers and declaring that the disgraceful scramble and rowing over Federal offices was such that it would be a good thing for Republicanism in North Carolina if every Federal office in the State were filled by a Democrat. He pronounced North Carolina Republicans unfit to hold office and he made his actions suit his words when he appointed Judge Connor, a Democrat, United States District Judge for the Cape Fear District, in preference to any Republican in the State of North Carolina. Notwithstanding the great insult which the President heaped upon North Carolina Republicans in his Greensboro speech, they not only supported his nomination in the National convention but gave him an increased vote of 34,000 in this State when he was elected in November, 1908. Notwithstanding the further snub and injury which he did to North Carolina Republicans in the appointment of Judge Connor, North Carolina Republicans continue to lick the hand that smote them more than once and then some more.

When the present campaign began to brew, Congressman John Motley Morehead, with the aid, connivance and machinations of the Hon. Marion Butler, began a campaign to capture the party organization in North Carolina. Their campaign had been based on the claim that Morehead is one of your decent Republicans and that the party under control of him and Marion Butler, also laying claim to more or less decency, would give North Carolina a respectable Republican party. Of course, this stirred up the old liners, for it shows that Morehead and Butler lined up with Taft in regarding the old Republican machine as an unclean thing. Indignation, therefore, has grown more rampant than ever, and old line Republican hatred of Marion Butler especially has been immensely augmented.

When Morehead and Butler began their intrigue one of the old Republican war horses in the Asheville District read the riot act in a newspaper communication well calculated to poison the minds of all Republicans against the Morehead-Butler combination. The Republican machine also was roused up against the pretenders, and between the contending forces for the party management there has arisen great probability of a clash between the two belligerent factions at the Republican State convention to be held in a few weeks at Greensboro, a Democratic stronghold which the Republicans have made their State headquarters.

The Republican factions in Guilford county, of which Greensboro is the county seat, held their county convention a few days ago with the understanding that for the sake of harmony they would divide the delegates to the State convention equally between the factions. However, when the convention had finished up its work in a more or less satisfactory way, and the old liners backing present State Chairman Adams and his machine had nearly all left the convention, the Mroehead-Butler crowd took advantage of it to instruct the State convention delegates to suppor Morehead for State Chairman against Adams. To say that this stirred up a hornet's nest among the Republican brethren hardly expresses it. The Greensboro News, a Republican daily of wide influence, which has been conducted with a view to harmonizing and building up the Republican party in North Carolina, could not restrain itself, but has bitterly attacked the treacherous proceedings of the Guilford county convention. The News makes it plain that the Adams faction had a considerable majority in that convention and that, acting with good faith, and believing in the good faith of the Morehead faction, the old faithful departed from the convention and reaped treachery as the consequence. The more the old liners think of it the more red hot they get, and it is safe to say that the Republican State convention, to be one of the warmest in the history of the party.

One of the reasons assigned by the Morehead-Butler combine for their purpose to capture the party machine is that it is their desire to build up a decent Republican party in North Carolina. They charge that Chairman Adams and his machine is a political pie-distributing syndicate, with no respectability such as would benefit the party, and that it is really not their object to build up the Republican party in North Carolina but to keep up their syndicate for the sole purpose of distributing Federal offices in the State. State Chairman Adams, as a matter of course, must be terribly incensed under such charges, but instead of having an eruption of profanity and hurling the lie right and left in the press, he has borne the fight with a great deal of composure and more or less gracefulness, unless he has boiled over in a private kind of way.

Adams, however, could hold in no longer after the dirty work in the Guilford county convention, so in an interview in the Greensboro News of Wednesday he answers the charges of disloyalty preferred against him and his machine by Morehead and Butler. The first clatter out of the Adams box is the resurection of a letter written to State Chairman Adams December 12th, 1908, by Morehead himself, in which he congratulates State Chairman Adams upon his fine management of the 1908 campaign. The printed letter of Morehead refutes extracts from one of Butler's letters in which Butler had made the same charges against the Adams machine that are now being made in the interest of Morehead. In his 1908 letter, in order to refute Butler be gives a resume of the campaign of 1908 so as to prove that Adams not only aided in his election but reduced Democratic majorities, elected three Republican Congressmen and carried three Congressional districts for Taft. Morehead, now in alliance with Butler, then went on to detail the fine work of State Chairman Adams and said in his letter to Adams: "Mr. Butler's references to the campaign are not only unfounded but are absurd." Now the same Morehead who wrote that in 1908 has joined in with Butler to refute his own letter to Adams.

State Chairman Adams also publishes a 1908 letter from Gilliam Grissom, Morehead's campaign manager, in which Grissom refutes what he calls "the matter of the Butler slander." State Chairman Adams also flops out another 1908 letter from W. E. Logan, campaign manager for Congressman Grant, who was elected, giving him credit for the work he had done in the 1908 election and for his "magnificent management of party affairs." And still another letter published is one from Republican Congressman Charles H. Cowles, also paying the highest compliments to Chairman Adams and saying that Adams had done everything he could do to elect him and that his district organization received the full and hearty support of Adams, and acknowledges that it was largely through Adams' help that a Democratic majority of 1,500 two years previously was changed to a Republican majority of 1,335 for Cowles in 1908. Congressman Cowles also writes State Chairman Adams: "Under your splendid administration of our party's affairs, we have gained more than 34,000 votes in the State within the past two years, have wrested from the Democrats three Congressmen, and today have a party that stands a menace to Democratic supremacy in North Carolina."

So a man up a tree, although it may be a Democratic tree, an unbiased judgment would be that Chairman Adams floors the whole bunch on their own written testimony so far as his loyalty and work for the Republican party goes. As to the respectability of the Republican party, either then or now or hereafter, it is not necessary to say, for its past malodorous record and its present character speak for themselves.

The Charleston News and Courier says: "The President is at sea, we are told." In that event, then, it is quite likely that ex-President Roosevelt will land.

The National Board of Health gives advice on "how to keep cool." About the best way we could suggest would be not to go to a political convention as a delegate.

The Hon. Richmond Pearson, of Asheville, foreign diplomat under the McKinley and Roosevelt administrations, is one Republican who maintains his self-respect. The Republicans of Buncombe county nominated him for the State Senate a few days ago and he declined the nomination as a resentment of the insult heaped upon North Carolina Republicans by President Taft in his speech at Greensboro a few years ago. Mr. Pearson not only did that, but he rasps President Taft in a way that shows that Pearson is a Republican who will not let even Taft kick him and then lick his boots. Men are of all parties are bound to respect Mr. Pearson for his manliness, although sympathizing with him on account of the political affilia-

MAJOR STEDMAN'S NOMINATION.

The Star this morning carries the exceedingly gratifying news that the Democratic Congressional Convention of the Fifth District, which reconvened at Greensboro on Tuesday and adjourned yesterday, nominated the Hon. Charles M. Stedman for Congress. Without at all disparaging the qualifications, ability and high character of the other aspirants for the nomination, the Star believes that the entire State of North Carolina will agree with it that the convention nominated the right man. Major Stedman is one of the State's ablest and most intellectual men, altogether an elegant and courtly gentleman thoroughly representative of the South. In Washington he will do great honor to North Carolina and would be a fit representative from any State in the Union. That distinguished gentleman has the utmost confidence of the people of North Carolina and in November he will be elected to a seat in the next Congress, redeeming the Fifth District which two years ago sent up a Republican representative in the person of the Hon. John Motley Morehead.

Major Stedman is a Cape Fear man, formerly having been an honored resident of Wilmington for years previous to his removal to the western part of the State. He is one of the State's most eminent lawyers and is a North Carolinian in whose hands the honor of North Carolina can be ever trusted. His host of friends in Wilmington and eastern North Carolina send greetings to the Fifth District and heartily congratulate Major Stedman upon his nomination. All of North Carolina will hope for his election in November.

If a young man could take his girl up in an air ship he would whisper even more of the same 'airy nothings" that he would on the beach.

Col. Bryan appears to have lost all save honesty, integrity and honor, which neither his enemies nor his friends can take from him. Nevertheless, he talks like a man who is not yet done coming back.

The consolation we may get because of the fact that the Republican party in North Carolina will have a "turrible" time at their State convention in Greensboro on the 10th of August, will not be enjoyed like it used to be.

In yesterday's Greensboro news (Rep.) a headine over an article referring to the Republican factional fight over the State chairmanship, says: "Morehead Forms Partnership With Three-Sided Butler."

The Ohio State Republican convention met on Tuesday and tue keynote speech was made by Congressman Nicholas Longworth, the temporary chairman. He declared himself to be a "regular" and expressed adherence to the Aldrich tariff, which beyond the shadow of a doubt is today responsible in a great measure for the present burdens on consumers. The regulars were largely in the majority in the Ohio convention and no doubt Longworth is politician enough to know that his political fortunes are in the hands of the regulars. He is the son-in-law of ex-President Roosevelt and if Nick is a regular and the Colonel an insurgent it would seem that the family is divided. However, the Colonel is "on the fence," and that means that he is liable to be on both sides of the fence, a matter which depends entirely upon his gymnastic mood from one day to another.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The gentlemen who perform these wonderful endurance runs with automobiles are not in it with the women who, in hot days like these, wear a ton or more of extra hair. A man would kick out of the traces quick if called on to do a thing like this. Imagine a hay stack worn on the rear of the head with the mercury in the nineties.—Greensboro Record.

Organized labor won a significant victory last week when the Buck's Stove & Range Company with which it has been at odds over four years, agreed to operate in the future as a closed shop. The moral effect of this concession on the part of the range company, cannot be overestimated, for no other single employer of labor has given the Federation of Labor so stubborn a fight.—Salisbury Post.

Soldiers in uniform are much like what Vance once said about a marshal—"a fool on horseback." Passing Statesville the other day, some soldiers thought it was a good joke to jump from the train and take every pipe away from an old man who sells them at the station—corn cob pipes. These smart Alecs should not only be made to pay for every one of them, but they should be strung up by the thumbs.—Greensboro Record.

Those Western Republicans are making it warm for the stand-patters in their ranks. Cummins, Bristow, Beveridge and others, are standing to their colors and telling the people how they have been buncoed by the regular Republican organization. The President threatened at one time to read them all out of the party, but they are evidently, not now at least, if they ever were, afraid of the threat.—Raleigh Times.

We are not so sure about the election of Representative Morehead as chairman of the Republican State committee. He appears to be in the lead, but so was Blackburn four years ago at this stage of the game. It is worthy of mention, also, that Morehead has a number of the same counties Blackburn had, in some cases through with its manipulations many of these instructed delegations wheeled around and voted for Adams. Watch these same fellows play the game on Morehead. Charlotte is still growing as a cotton center. The buying of cotton from wagons is the smallest part of the cotton business of the city. There are firms in Charlotte that bring cotton to this city from all parts of the cotton belt. One of these firms is Cooper & Griffin, whose headquarters are in Greenville, S. C. This firm has had an agency in Charlotte for some time past. It is now going to enlarge its business here. It has increased its capital stock to $200,000. The business of this firm is the buying, selling and concentration of cotton. And "concentration" means a big item for Charlotte. In concentration, this firm will bring to Charlotte cotton from all over the belt. Here it will be compressed and shipped or sold. The indications are that Charlotte is soon to become one of the greatest concentration points in the South.—Charlotte Chronicle.

When the Ladies' Monumental Association, having in charge the erection of the beautiful and stately Confederate monument that stands at the western entrance to the Capitol, they wished to secure the figure of a private confederate soldier who would fitly represent the brave heroes who wore the gray. They selected Mr. W R. Dicks, of this city, and for all time his figure in bronze on that monument will remain as a worthy model of the Confederate soldier. Mr. Dicks died yesterday. He was a model citizen, clean of life, true in every relation, industrious, modest, sincere. He was a fit type of the courageous Confederate soldier who fought bravely and never boasted, returning to the ordinary duties of life and serving in peace as worthily as in war. Mr Dicks was honored and respected by this whole community. In his upright life, patriotic service he leaves to his children a legacy more to be prized than riches.—Raleigh News and Observer.

She has not been able to walk downstairs before in past five years, except by stepping down on each step with one foot at a time. This is remarkable. Send five more boxes."

No matter what ails your feet or what under heaven you have used without getting relief, just use TIZ. It's different. It acts right off. It cures sore feet to stay cured. DROWNED IN WALDREN CREEK

Young Son of Mr. J. J. Carter, of Ocean Fisheries, Lost Life Yesterday Morning—Body Recovered.

John J. Carter, Jr., the 12-year-old son of Mr. John J. Carter, an employe of the Ocean Fisheries, was drowned in Waldren creek, at the Teachout lumber mill, 20 miles below Wilmington, between 10 and 11 o'clock yesterday morning, and the body was recovered late in the afternoon and taken by private conveyance to the home of the grief-stricken parents, five miles this side of the scene of the tragic occurrence.

The lad was on a visit to his brother-in-law, Mr. Ed. Sexton, an employe of the lumber cmpany and accompanied him to the mill yesterday morning. He was playing around some logs on the edge of the creek and it is supposed that he lost his balance and fell overboard. He had been cautioned about the danger and Mr. Sexton had been casting a glance over toward him every few minutes to see that he was all right. The last time he saw the youth alive he was dangerously near the water and called to him. He looked again in about ten minutes and the lad was not to be seen. A search around the mill was to no avail and the employes then felt pretty certain that the lad had fallen in the creek. The stream was dragged and in a short time the lad's hat was pulled ashore. All doubt was then removed and all were satisfied that the lifeless body lay at the bottom of the creek. The party continued their efforts until late in the afternoon, when the body was recovered and taken to the home of the parents, as above stated. The sympathy of a great many friends in the community goes out to the grief-stricken parents. The funeral and interment will probably take place some time today, but this had not been decided upon yesterday afternoon.

In response to the statement of the committee of the North Carolina Press Association and the opening of the Star's columns to subscriptions to the Bill Nye Memorial, particulars of which are carried in this issue, the first contribution was received yesterday in the form of a check from Mr. A. D. Turner, of the Butters Lumber Co., Boardman, N. C., for $5. In enclosing check, Mr. Turner says: "Am glad to add a 'mite' to this cause." The Star acknowledges with pleasure this contribution of Mr. Turner and hopes that others will be inspired to add further amounts to the fund, all of which will be promptly forwarded to Mr. John M. Julian, treasurer.

As stated, the proposed memorial will take the most practical form of a $5,000 Memorial Building at the Stonewall Jackson Training School, a cause which in itself should enlist the most hearty support of the people of the State. Admirers of the lamented humorist and supporters of the training school alike will be interested in this commendable effort.

WALTER WAY GETS FIVE YEARS

Man Charged With Murder of C. L. Register Pleads Guilty to Manslaughter—Other Cases In Superior Court.

Walter Way, about 40 years old, a well known plumber, charged with striking the blow that resulted in the death at the hospital in this city ten days ago of young C. L. Register, of Warsaw, pleaded guilty in Superior Court yesterday morning to manslaughter. Solicitor Duffy, who had made an investigation of the case, accepted the plea, and Way was sentenced by Judge Whedbee to five years at hard labor in the State penitentiary.

The defendant was represented by Woodus Kellum, Esq., of the law firm of Kellum & Loughlin. After the plea of manslaughter had been entered by the defendant, witnesses were examined in order that the court might be enlightened as to the punishment that should be meted out in the case. The witnesses examined were: Dr. C. D. Bell, the coroner; Dr. W. D. MacMillan, county superintendent of health, who performed the autopsy; Mr. J. J. Ezzell, of Turkey, father-in-law of young Register, who was present when the fatal blow was struck; C. T. Williams, W. T. Crom, W. S. Mintz, Ed. Russ and Miles Gurganus. Their testimony was practicaly the same as given at the coroner's inquest and which is still fresh in the minds of the reading public. Briefly stated, the evidence was to the effect that Register, who came here Sunday morning, July 17th, with his father-in-law to spend the day, taking advantage of the special Sunday excursion rates, in the afternoon of that day gave Way 25 cents with which to purchase some whiskey. Way did not deliver the whiskey to Register and there were some words between the two relative to a return of the 25 cents. This took place at the foot of Dock street. Register, it was said, was standing with his arms across his breast when Way, without any warning, struck him on the left cheek with his fist. The young man fell to the pavement, his head striking a rock, inflicting a wound in the back of the head that resulted in his death at the James Walker Memorial Hospital Tuesday evening, July 19th.

After hearing the evidence Judge Whedbee was inclined to sentence Way to ten years in the penitentiary, but after hearing an eloquent plea of counsel he sentenced the defendant to five years. Way's wife and two children were in the court room during the examination of witnesses and the pronouncement of sentence.

When court reconvened yesterday morning the trial of the case against James Henry Nixon, colored, charged with removing a boat at Wrightsville Sound, belnging to Mr. J. O. Bowden was resumed. After being out a short time the jury returned a verdict of not guilty and the defendant was discharged. Geo. L. Peschau and Thos. D. Meares, Jr., Esqs., appeared for Nixon, while Walter P. Gafford, Esq., assisted the solicitor in the prosecution.

At the afternoon session cases against King Bell and George Bell, both colored, were called. They were charged with breaking into the store of Jas. Moore, colored, at Wrightsboro, in the middle of the day some weeks ago. King Bell pleaded guilty to the charge and was used by the State as a witness against George Bell, who pleaded not guilty. The jury found George Bell guilty also. King Bell was sentenced to two years on the county roads while George Bell got three years. The latter was represented by L. Clayton Grant, Esq.

George Green, colored, was the principal defendant at the afternoon session. He is the negro that succeeded in getting a quantity of merchandise from wholesale dealers on the wharf by forging orders. He was charged with forgery in four cases and larceny by trick in another. Only two forgery cases wee tried, the prosecutors being the Brunswick Grocery Co. and H. L. Vollers. He was found guilty in each. He then plead guilty in the other two cases. No true bill had been returned in the case charging larceny by trick. Green was sentenced to four years on the county roads. He stated that he came here about five years ago from Brunswick county.

Son Darling, alias Son Walters, alias Henry Gause, colored, charged with breaking into the store of Blaine Sloan, colored, some weeks ago, was not found guilty.

Arthur McNeal, colored, convicted the day before of larceny, was given four months on the county roads, and the same sentence was imposed upon Alex. Robinson, colored, convicted the day before also of forgery.

The grand jury found "not a true bill" in the case against Frank Green, a white man, formerly a sailor on the revenue cutter Seminole, bound over some time ago on the charge of burglary, it being charged that he entered the apartments of M. L. Winner and family, corner Front and Dock streets, in the dead of night. The young man, who appears to have been intoxicated that night, had been accustomed to going up a flight of stairs similar to that leading to the Winner apartments, and it was generally thought that he got in the Winner rooms through mistake. Those familiar with the case will be glad to learn of the action of the grand jury.

M. L. Winner, convicted at the April term of court of the charge of retailing and sentenced to six months on the county roads, was required to renew his bond for appearance at the January term, pending appeal to Supreme Court.

It was thought yesterday afternoon that all the cases on the criminal side of the docket would be disposed of today, in which case civil matters will be taken up tomorrow.

WARSAW COMMERCIAL CLUB

Members Spending Week-End at Wrightsville Beach in Their Private Car, "Caroline," Parked at Lumina.

A number of the members of the Warsaw Commercial Club are at Wrightsville Beach to spend the week-end, having arrived at 6 o'clock last evening in their private railroad car, "Caroline," which is parked on a siding at Lumina. The club is a social organization as well as a town-builder and the members never lose an opportunity to boost the advantages of the progressive Duplin town. The fact that the club owns a splendidly equipped and well appointed railroad car is illustrative of the progressive spirit of the people of that hustling town.

The officers of the club are: President, Dr. J. H. Newbury; vice president, R. H. Best; secretary and treasurer, Herbert Smith. Besides the officers the following members of the club are enjoying the outing at the beach: Messrs. B. L. Farrior, R. D. Johnson, J. P. Wilson, H. D. Farrior, T. B. Sassie, F. G. Hussey, Morris Harris, Faison Lee and B. T. Sandlin.

The car, which was purchased by the club some months ago, is as conveniently arranged as a Pullman, being provided with all the compartments found in Pullman. Among the attaches of the car are two porters and a cook. The party will use the car as living quarters while at the beach. They spent a week at Morehead City a short time ago and will visit Asheville during the Summer and probably other places.

On either side of the car in bold letters is the name of the car, and that of the club, which is a fine advertisement within itself. The party will remain at the beach until Sunday or Monday. All have many warm friends in Wilmington by whom they have been cordially greeted.

SALE OF BEACH PROPERTY.

More Than Hundred Lots Sold Above Tarrymoore Yesterday.

A large crowd of beach residents and others interested in beach property attended the auction sale of lots at Wrightsville Beach yesterday morning. The sale was conducted by the Columbia Realty & Auction Company, Greensboro, and the United Realty & Auction Co., Wilmington. More than one hundred lots were sold during the sale, which began at 11 A. M. and continued to 1:30 P. M., and they ranged in prices from $140 to $300 and over. The major portion of the crowd from the city went down on special suburban cars leaving the junction at 10 o'clock. The property is located just above the Tarrymoore Hotel and the great success of the sale yesterday means that the northern end of the beach will be developed in a short time. Already, it is stated, some of the buyers are making arrangements to erect cottages for occupancy the coming season. In the drawing a young lady secured the free lot; Thos. K. Woody, Esq., got the $5 in gold and a large number shared in the distribution of the small change thrown in the sand by those conducting the sale. Music was furnished by a regular band.

NEW OFFICERS BUSY.

Reports Being Filed as to Sanitary Conditions of City.

The special health officers appointed Tuesday morning by Dr. Joseph Akerman, city superintendent of health, have begun their work in earnest and are making a thorough inspection of the city from "cellar to garret," so to speak, and are filing their reports at the health department in the basement of the City Hall. A large number of inspections were made yesterday. The department has adopted a card index system by means of which the superintendent of health, or any of his officers, will be able to tell at a glance the condition of any given building or premises. A cabinet for the purpose of filing the daily reports of the officers has been arranged. The reports of the officers are made on slips of paper the size of the cabinet drawers and give the street and number, owner and occupant of the building, date inspected, water supply, whether sewer or closet is used, plumbing, general condition of premises and the name of the officer making the inspection. It is believed that this new system will greatly facilitate the work of the health department.

They will leave Wilmington on the regular Seaboard train this morning and reach Clarkton in time to board the excursion train which leaves there at 6:45 A. M. The train will leave Johnson City on the return trip at 3:30 P. M. Friday and will return to Wilmington on train No. 40 Saturday.

May Purchase Class B Boats.

There is a movement on foot among members of the Carolina Yacht Club to place in commission next season class B boats for the races that are held in the channel every year under the auspices of the club. A model of the Class B boat is now on exhibition at the club house. Class A boats are now used by the club, some 12 or 15 in number. The Class B boat is smaller and is cheaper in construction than the Class A boats. They are about 15 feet long and a little less than four feet beam. It is stated that the boats will be constructed of juniper and will not cost exceeding $30 and may be used either for sailing or rowing. The club will decide at its next annual meeting whether or not the new style of boat will be adopted.

MR. W. J. REILLY KILLED

Former Young Wilmingtonian Meets Tragic Death in Charleston, S. C.—Fell From Pole to Pavement—Remains Here.

Members of the family and friends in this city were shocked and saddened at the distressing intelligence by long distance telephone yesterday afternoon that young Mr. William J. Reilly, formerly of this city, had been killed in Charleston, S. C., about 4 o'clock as the result of falling from a pole of the Southern Bell Telephone Company by whom he was employed in the South Carolina city as an electrician.

Owing to bad weather and difficult communication, particulars of the distressing tragedy could not be learned further than that while about his duties for the telephone company he had climbed a pole from which he fell in some way a distance of 15 feet, killing him instantly. Mr. Reilly had made his home in Charleston for some time and was employed until July 6th with the Southern Railway. He left the railroad service to take up again his work as an electrician and had been at work only a few weeks when the sad tragedy of yesterday ended his career. Mr. Reilly was 26 years of age and was a son of the late John W. Reilly, of this city, and a grandson of Maj. Reilly, who distinguished himself in command of the forts on the lower Cape Fear during the Civil War. He was a young man of amiability and decided mechanical ability and was well liked by everyone with whom he came in contact. Six or seven years ago he was badly hurt by an accident in this city very similar to that which resulted in his death yesterday. He left the hazardous service for a while but later returned to the work until his untimely end yesterday.

Young Mr. Reilly is survived by three brothers and three sisters, who have the tenderest sympathy of all in the sad tragedy of yesterday. The brothers are Messrs. James Owen Reilly, Mr. Edward J. Reilly, and Louis Reilly, of this city, and the sisters are Mrs. J. E. Scott, of Charlotte and Misses Annie and Katie Reilly of Wilmington. Mr. James Owen Reilly leaves on the early train this morning for Charleston and will accompany the body home on the late train tonight. The funeral announcement will be made later.

Juniors' Annual Outing.

Carolina Beach was in the hands yesterday of members of George Washington Council, Jr., O. U. A. M., and their friends, the occasion being the annual excursion of the council to that delightful resort. For the accommodation of the crowds the steamer Wilmington made three trips to the pier during the day and there were quite a number aboard on each trip. The last boat from the resort reached the city late at night. There was music and dancing and other forms of amusement and all spent a most pleasant day.

TELLS OF HISTORIC FIGHT.

Original Log Book From the Monitor Given to Navy Department.

Washington, July 27.—The original log book of the famous Monitor, covering the period of her engagement with the Confederate ironclad Merrimac in Hampton Roads on March 9th, 1862, was today given to the Navy Department to be preserved among its historic records.

The restoration of the log to the Department was due to Captain Louis Stodder, of the United States Revenue Cutter Service, now living in Brooklyn, N. Y., and an officer on the Monitor during her entire service. For years he has treasured the log among his most valuable possessions, but as old age crept over him he desired to see it placed where its preservation might be assured. Hence it was that he forwarded it to the library of the Navy Department.

The entries cover dates from February 26th, to September 11th, 1862, and tell of the little "cheese box on a raft" foundering off Cape Hatteras December 31, 1862, when Stoder was acting master; of her engagements with the Confederate batteries at Sewell's Point, Hampton Roads, and at Fort Darling in James river. But by far the most interesting concerns the fight with the Merrimac. Among the entries on Sunday, March 9, 1862, the following:

"4 to 8 P. M. Fine weather and calm, at sunrise saw three steamers lying under Sewell's Point, made one out to be the rebel steamer Merrimac, at 7:20 got underway and stood towards her and piped all hands to quarters.

(Signed.) J. WEBER.

"From 8 to meridian. Fine clear weather. The rebel steamers advancing and opened fire on the Minnesota; 8:20 opened fire on the Merrimac from that time until 12, constantly engaged, with the Merrimac.

(Signed) LOUIS STODDER.

"From meridian to 4 P. M. Clear weather. At 12:30 rifled shell struck pilot house, severely injuring Commander Worden. 1 P. M., the Merrimac hauled off in a disabled condition. Stood towards the Minnesota and received on board Assistant Secretary Fox, of the navy. 2 P. M. Captain Worden left for Fort Monroe in charge of Surgeon Logue.

(Signed) GEO. FREDERICKSON.

Those who inspected the log today drew attention to the first entry which should have been for the forenoon instead of the afternoon.

BOYS' BRIGADE ACTIVITIES

Divisions A. and B. Merged—Company C. to be Organized—An Orchestra Formed—New Apparatus—Lyceum Attractions.

Following their return from one of the most successful encampments on record, there has been a general revival of activity in all lines of work at the Boys' Brigade armory, under the capable direction of Manager Chas. Dushan and the outlook for the Fall work is most encouraging indeed.

Chief among recent changes is the promotion of Company B, the Junior organization, to full fellowship in the Brigade, giving the Brigade now two full companies of 50 and 32 men, respectively, the latter Company B to be recruited to 50 men as early as practicable. Officers for the ensuing year have been commissioned as follows:

Major, W. R. Dosher; Captain Company B, Simon Branch; 1st Lieutenant, Earl DuRant; 2nd Lieutenant, Earl King; 1st Sergeant, Bruce Cameron; 2nd Sergeant, C. Dixon; 1st Corporal, Levi Walton; 2nd Corporal, Leonidas Davis; 3rd Corporal, Ralph Sholar; 4th Corporal, Harry Register.

Another company to be known as Company C, will be organized at once and will be recruited from boys from 10 to 15 years of age. Only 30 members, however, will be accepted for the present. While the officers of the new company have not been selected as yet, it is known that Walker Taylor, Jr., eldest son of the founder and commander of the Brigade, will be captain. Boys of good moral character and a desire to better themselves, physically, morally and mentally, may send their applications to Mr. Dushan, the general secretary.

Bowling alleys at the Brigade armory are being put in the best of order and additional apparatus for the gym. arrived yesterday and will be installed at once. The present apparatus will also be overhauled and put in first class shape for the Fall and Winter work.

A new and decidedly pleasing feature of Brigade life in the future will be the Boys' Brigade Orchestra, which was organized under most favorable auspices last night. The election of officers resulted as follows: Leader, T. K. Curtis, Secretary, A. L. Dosher; Business Manager, Jas. A. Price; Librarian, E. McD. Reynolds. At present the instrumentation is as follows: T. K. Curtis, first violin; Glen Pate, second violin; R. H. Morriss, second violin; A. L. Dosher, first cornet; E. McD. Reynolds, second cornet; Leon Jewell, clarinet; J. W. Boney, horn; Alva Stanland, trombone; W. R. Dosher, traps. All are first class musicians and the organization will be one of the strongest of its kind in the city. Rehearsals will be held each Tuesday night and it is the purpose of the organizers to enlarge from time to time until a first class concert band is the result.

The Lyceum Course to be presented at the Brigade this Fall will be one of the strongest ever seen here. Tickets are being subscribed for very rapidly and lovers of good, wholesome amusement will embrace this opportunity to supply themselves at once. The price of the six numbers is only $2.50 and subscriptions may be telephoned or addressed to Mr. Dushan, at the armory or may be given to any member of the Brigade, who is a committee unto himself to see that nothing gets away. Tickets will be delivered on or about the first of September.

FREIGHT TRAIN WRECKED.

Number of Cars Ditched Near Columbia—Traffic Blocked.

A freight train bound from Columbia to Charleston, S. C., was wrecked a few miles out of Columbia Tuesday night, blocking traffic on that end of the W. C. & A. division of the Atlantic Coast Line until late yesterday afternoon. According to the unofficial report received here some 15 freight and coal cars were derailed, some of which were demolished. The cause was not learned. Passenger train No. 51, leaving here yesterday morning, had to be detoured and did not arrive in Columbia until 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon, but left there on time on the return trip. The wreck had not been cleared, however, and the train was held up for three hours. Two hours of this was made up after leaving the scene of the wreck, the train arriving here this morning only 50 minutes late. It was stated that no one was injured in the wreck.

GEORGIA PEACH CROP.

Three Times as Large as That of Last Season—6,000 Cars.

Atlanta, Ga., July 27.—Notwithstanding that between 300 and 400 cars of peaches rotted on the growers' hands because of the lack of a sufficient supply of refrigerator cars, Georgia's crop of peaches this year exceeds the record crop of 1908 by about 300 cars. This season's crop was three times as large as that of last year, the shipments today approximating 6,000 cars.

The yield this year was more than 1,000 cars in excess of the estimate made by the Greogia Fruit Growers' Exchange.

COTTON MARKET EXCITEMENT.

Hayne Bid 15.30 for 50,000 Bales of July—Prices Advanced.

New York, July 27.—At the opening of the cotton market today Frank P. Hayne, one of the New Orleans bull leaders, bid 15.30 for 50,000 bales of July and then 15.35 for 25,000 bales. This started a rush of covering by belated shorts and inside of the first half hour July cotton had sold at 16.10 or 73 points above the closing figures of last night. The shorts found very little cotton for sale and are estimated to have secured less than 1,000 bales on the advance.

The rest of the market was also very excited and business was very active with August and new crop positions selling at 25 to 27 points above last night's prices on general buying, covering by recent selling as a result of continued dry, hot weather in Texas, bullish crop reports and talk of a better trade demand.

Trading in July will be over at noon next Friday and it is estimated that by the end of the month the bull leaders will have taken up at least 200,000 bales of cotton on July contracts in addition to the large amount of cotton they received during May.

People in ocean freight circles here report that already 80,000 bales of ocean freight room has been engaged by the bulls for the shipment of the cotton taken on New York contracts to Liverpool, Havre and Bremen during August.

Reports that the steamer Comus, on its way for New York with five thousand bales for contract delivery had been delayed 48 hours through standing by the steamer Momus, which is said to have been afire may have accounted for the scare of July shorts at the opening. Later July was neglected and reacted about 30 points but the upward movement in the new crop months continued owing to reports of very high temperature in Oklahoma and increasingly bullish views as to the probable showing of the government crop condition figures next Tuesday.

Before the close October cotton sold at 13.64 or 33 points above the previous day and at the highest level reached since early in the year. The general market closed firm at a net advance of from 23 to 53 points. Every facility of the New York Cotton Exchange is now being strained to the utmost in the effort to prepare cotton for delivery on contracts between now and the end of the month. The largest amount of cotton on record for any one day was inspected yesterday, was a total of 15,538 bales were passed by the bureau.

STRUCK VIRGINIA NORMAL.

Lightning Tore a Hole in Roof of Science Hall.

Harrisonburg, Va., July 27.—Lightning struck Science Hall of the State Normal School here today, cutting a big hole in the roof, charring timbers and following the water pipe to the ground. A class of a hundred girls was taking an examination in the building at the time. The crashing and rattling on the roof and the blinding flash created a panic and broke up the exercises. Nobody was injured.

FEARED DISGRACEFUL DEATH

Rather Than Take Chances Norfolk Man Killed Self.

Norfolk, Va., July 27.—Fearing he had violated the conditions of a pardon in which he was liberated from a Western prison severa years ago, Edgar H. Shrock, 25 years old, killed himself in his room at 211 Chesnut street this morning, by firing a bullet from a 32 calibre revolver through his head. Shrock was engaged to marry Miss Elizabeth Butler, of this city, and he sent a letter to her telling why he committed suicide. Miss Butler while admitting that brooding over the fact that he might have violated the conditions of his pardon and fearing that he would get a disgraceful death, were the causes he assigned for taking his life, declined to state what crime her lover committed that caused him to be confined in a Western prison.

Friends of Shrock say he was once a cowboy and that he killed a man and was sent to prison and afterwards pardoned. He has a father residing in Cleveland, Ohio.

Fort Wayne, Ind., July 27.—Neither relatives nor acquaintances of Edgar S. Shrock said to be of this city, who committed suicide today at Norfolk, Va., could be found tonight. The city directory does not contain his name.

BOTH KILLED IN DUEL

Unusual Case at Little Rock, Ark. Coroner's Verdict.

Little Rock Ark., July 27.—A coroner's jury which investigated the double killing of Ben Barger, an employe of the Tennessee Brewing Company, of Memphis, and C. M. Gaynor, a member of the fire department of this city, rendered a verdict today that each came to his death by shots fired by the other. Mrs. Gaynon some time ago procured a divorce from Mr. Gaynon and married Mr. Barger, but after nine years divoced Barger also and remarried her first husband. Barger yesterday sent Gaynon this written challenge:

"You have got my wife and you have got to fight me. Are you man enough? Please name the place we can meet. You are a coward if you don't fight."

He also attempted to inveigle Mrs. Gaynon from home by sending a false message to her that he had shot himself and was calling for her.

Barger was the step brother of Mrs. Gaynon. His mother is still living at Rugby, Tenn.

The Sixth Street Adventist Christian Church was thronged with relatives and friends at 8:30 o'clock last evening to witness the ceremony which united in marriage Miss Beatrice Risley, the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Risley, and Mr. Sion J. King, son of Rev. J. P. King, a well known and popular young man. The wedding was beautiful in its simplicity. The ceremony was impressively performed by Elder J. W. S. Harvey. LIQUOR IN PLATFORM

Action of Iowa Democrats in Convention Yesterday.

Ottumwa, Iowa, July 27.—Such townships and municipalities of Iowa as are willing to pay high license for the sake of trafficking in liquor may do so in the event of Democratic success at the forthcoming gubernatorial election. At least the platform adopted at the convention of that party here today, says so, but the pledge was not made without a fight, both in committee and on the floor. Former Congressman Martin, chairman of the resolution committee defended the plank against a vigorous assault on the part of General J. B. Weaver. The platform as reported was then adopted, but General Weaver demanded a roll call on the liquor plank so he said, that the people of the State would know exactly where the party stands. He made a motion to strike out the vital parts of the plank, but was overwhelmingly defeated on roll call.

Jerry B. Sullivan, of Des Moines, in his capacity as temporary chairman delivered the keynote speech. H. J. Stenger, of Toledo, presided over the permanent organization. A ringing speech was delivered by Claude R. Porter, Democratic candidate for Governor.

The platform denounces the recent tariff revision as a "masterpiece of injustice," declares trusts and monopolies to be intolerable, opposes the central bank idea, condemns the postal savings bank law in allowing the withdrawal of savings from the communities in which they are deposited and accuses the Republican National administration of making reckless expenditures. It endorses the regulation of railway, telephone, telegraph and express companies, an income tax, the conservation of natural resources, the principle of the initiative, referendum and the recall, and improvement of roads. It declares for the Oregon plan of electing Senators until such time as it shall be possible to do so by direct vote of the people.

GEN MINIET CAPTURED.

Detachment of Rural Guards Also Taken—Situation in Cuba.

Havana, July 27.—Gen. Miniet, who two days ago started an uprising near El Caney, was surprised in camp today and captured by a detachment of the Rural guards, under Lieut. Carrillo. One of Miniet's insurgents was killed, Miniet and two others were taken prisoners and the others fled.

Lieut. Carrillo and his detachment came upon Gen. Miniet and his band of insurgents while they were encamped and immediately opened fire. The insurgents returned the fire, but when the guard charged they broke and fled, abandoning their arms.

One of the insurgents was killed instantly while Miniet and two others were taken prisoners. The rest of the band is hotly pursued by the rurals. None of the guard were hurt.

The prisoners were taken to Santiago whence they will be sent to Havana for trial on the capital charge of engaging in armed rebellion.

Another armed party is still believed to be in the field. All sections are reported tranquil.

It is now definitely known that Colonel Jane, one of the veterans of the war of independence, who was reported as having joined the uprising, is at his home near Guantanamo.

Washington, July 27.—The Cuban legation here tonight received confirmation of the dispatches from Havana telling of the capture of Gen. Minuel. The dispatch which was signed by the Cuban minister for foreign affairs said that the revolutionary leader and all his men were taken by rurals and that the uprising was successfully suppressed.

Knoxville, Tenn., July 27.—At a special meeting of the Southern Appalachian Coal Operators' Association held this afternoon it was decided to oppose the threatened advance of 15 cents per ton on coal from this field to the Carolinas. A strong special committee

THE SECOND REGIMENT.

Gen. Armfield Makes Fine Report of Encampment—Charters.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 27.—Adjutant General J. F. Armfield, of the North Carolina National Guard, just back from the encampment of the Second Regiment at Camp Glenn, Morehead, says the most gratifying success was attained in every feature of the camp life and work. There were over 150 of the men who qualified as marksmen in the rifle practice and a goodly number as experts, three times as many as qualified at the 1909 encampment. Capt. Prince and Lieut. Maloney, of the Goldsboro company, re-qualified, having won this honor last year also. Major Thomas Orrell, of Wilmington, was also among those who made the expert riflemen score. Gen. Armfield says the encampment kept up a steady gait of work for the men and officers with enough reactive features to keep a keen zest and hearty co-operative spirit.

Camp was broken at 8:30 yesterday morning and a stop made at Newbern to take part in the splendid parade in connection with the bi-centennial celebration which Gen. Armfield pronounces a splendid success. The military boys were treated to a fine barbecue after the parade that every one enjoyed.

The men of the first regiment are also just back from the Chickamauga training camp with the regulars, Sergeant John Watlington, doing special detail service with the North Carolina Guard, is just back from there and says that the North Carolina boys made a fine record, one of the very best, in fact, of any State troops assembled there.

Three charters were issued today. The Reidsville Seminary Co., capital $10,000 by R. S. Montgomery and others; The Hyde County Transportation Co., Engleside, capital $100,000 by S. H. Spencer and others and The Rockfish Trading Co., of Cumberland county, capital $20,000 by J. W. McLauchlin and others.

CRIPPEN CANNOT ESCAPE.

Will be Captured if Aboard Canadian Steamer Montrose.

Montreal, July 27.—Dr. Hawley H. Crippen, of London, and his former typist, Ethel Clara Leneve, cannot escape the clutches of the law if they are on board the Canadian Pacific steamer Montrose, now less than 1,000 miles from a Canadian port. It is no longer important that inspector Dew, of Scotland Yard, on board the White Star steamer Laurentic, will reach this side of the Atlantic ahead of the pair who booked on the Montrose under the names of John Robinson and John Robinson, Jr., and whose identity he was hurriedly despatched from London to investigate. The law machinery of the Dominion and the Province of Quebec has been set in motion and officers armed with a warrant for the arrest of Dr. Crippen and Miss Leneve issued at the instance of Commissioner Sherwood, of the Dominion police force, will be the first to step on board the Montrose when she touches first on Friday to pick up a pilot.

Outgoing and incoming vessels are being closely watched for some word that may be related from either Inspector Dew or the Captain of the Montrose. One of these is the steamer Royal George in bound from Bristol, reported by wireless today that she had been in touch with both the Laurentic and the Montrose, but nothing had been said about Dr. Crippen. After passing Belle Isle, the Montrose will be constantly in touch with shore wireless stations.

GEORGIA CROP IS SHORT.

Cotton Yield Will be Decreased by 722,000 Bales—Estimate.

Atlanta, Ga., July 27.—Georgia's cotton crop will this year fall short of the yield of last year by 722,000 bales, according to an estimate issued by the State Department of Agriculture. Commissioner Hudson states that reports from all sections of the State show that 8 per cent. of the acreage has been abandoned and the unfavorable weather conditions prevailing for the past month has resulted in deterioration in every part of the cotton belt of Georgia. The estimate of the present crop is 62 per cent. of that of 1909, which was approximately 1,900,000 bales.

Corn has also been affected by the unfavorable weather, necessitating the abandonment of 5 per cent. of the acreage.

AN EXCITING RUNAWA.Y

Caused a Scare in Raleigh Yesterday Funeral of Veteran.

(Epecial Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 27.—Fayetteville street, Raleigh's principal thoroughfare, had an exciting runaway this morning. Dr. MlCauley's buggy was passing near the Yarborough Hotel with the driver and a colored girl in it when the axle snapped off at the hub of the hind wheel and the horse dashed off. The vehicle struck the Yarborough buss and tore off the top of the buggy and then the frightened animal ran into the high board fence that encloses the work on the new $100,000 municipal building. The horse was not injured, but the buggy was torn to pieces. Neither of the occupants was seriously hurt.

This afternoon there was the funeral of Comrade William R. Dicks who passed away at the North Carolina Soldiers' Home yesterday aged 75 years. He was a native of Charleston, S. C., and served in Company D., Tenth Regiment during the civil war, having been taken a prisoner toward the close of the war and imprisoned at Point Lookout. He was a brave soldier of typical physique and posed for the statues of Confederate soldiers that appear on the two sides of the Confederate monument in Capital Square here.

Bristol, Tenn., July 23.—Charged with murdering Henry Zachary, an aged man at Roanoke, Va., and robbing his victim of $600 which Zachary had sewed in his coat lining for safe keeping, Henry Lewis, a boy of 16 years, was arrested here tonight. Lewis admits that he was with Zachary shortly before his death, which occurred July 17th, but strongly denies his guilt in face of the fact that a pistol of the calibre used in killing Zachary was found on his person.

President Chas. S. Barrett Defines Position of Farmers' Union.

Raleigh, N. C., July 27.—Charles S. Barrett, the president of the Farmers' Union, who has been here attending the State meeting of the North Carolina section of the order, is a big figure in a National way. As the head of an organization of three million voters, Mr. Barrett is very much in the eyes of the politicians, though he tells the world that his organization is absolutely separated from politics and is striving only for the betterment of the farming classes. He is a typical Georgian and there is no disputing the fact that the success of the Farmers' Union is due largely to his enthusiasm and energy.

Although he is steering his organization clear of the political parties, Mr. Barrett is taking notice of the politicians. It is said that the vote of the Farmers' Union, which he turned against United States Senator Taliaferro in the recent primary contest in Florida, resulted in the nomination of former Gov. Broward.

Last Winter President Barrett sent a letter to every Senator and Congress, asking them to tell how they stood on the postal savings bank bill, the measure preventing gambling in agricultural products, and several other legislative bills. Senator Taliaferro did not think enough of the letter to make reply, and as a result every member of the Farmers' Union in Florida was urged to vote for Gov. Broward, who declared for the Farmers' Union legislative programme. The result of the primary contest was very close, so there is hardly any doubt that the Farmers' Union defeated Senator Taliaferro for re-election.

"While the Farmers' Union is not in politics," said President Barrett, "there are several men in public life who have failed to consider our small demands in the way of legislative reform, and they will receive the consideration of members of our order. In a few weeks we are going to get out a Doom's Day Book, which will name the Senators and Congressmen who are disinclined to stop the gambling in farmers' crops, and who are not interested in legislation for the agricultural classes. We hope it will be 'doom's day' for all the statesmen whose name will appear in our little book. No I can't say yet who will appear in the book by name, but you will know between now and November."

Mr. Barrett left tonight for Columbia, S. C., to attend the meeting of the State organization there.

CAUGHT A MURDERER.

Man Who Killed Relative in Tennessee Caught in Virginia.

Charlottesville, Va., July 27.—Frank Moore, wanted for the murder of his brother-in-law, Charles Clarke, to Morristown, Hamlin county, Tennessee, April 20th last, was arrested here today. Moore reached here on a freight train and applied for a drink of water to a group of telegraph linemen. One of them who had lived on a farm adjoining that of the murdered man in Tennessee, recognized Moore.

When arrested Moore, according to the police, admitted that he had killed Clarke claiming that he shot in self defense. He said he would return to Tennessee without requisition papers. A reward offered for Moore's arrest will be claimed by the policeman, who made the arrest.

Though the fugitive offered no resistance when arrested, he later remarked: "It's a good thing I had lost my pistol before you spotted me."

GRAND TRUNK STRIKE.

Troops Ready to Proceed to Durand, Mich., to Protect Employes.

Detroit, Mich., July 27.—Two hundred officers and men of the Detroit Battalion, Michigan National Guard, assembled in Light Guard Armory tonight fully equipped for service and ready to proceed to Durand, Mich., to protect Grand Trunk employes. The order to mobilize the troops came from Governor Warner, who had been notified by the sheriff of Durand that the situation was getting beyond his control.

Guardsmen are also assembled at their armory in Grand Rapids waiting a call to the zone of disorders.

Adjutant General W. T. McGurren has gone to Durand to make a personal investigation of conditions and will issue orders from there summoning the soldiers if their presence is required.

One man was arrested at Milwaukee Junction, inside the Detroit city limits for throwing stones at a Grand Trunk passenger train.

OKLAHOMA CITY SHOWING

Remarkable Growth in Population Given By Census.

Washington, July 25.—Oklahoma City to which Governor Haskell moved the capital of Oklahoma from Guthrie without Federal authority, has had the remarkable growth of almost 540 per cent. in ten years according to figures, enumerated in the thirteenth census, which were made public by Director Durand, of the Census Bureau, today. The present population is 64,205 an increase of 54,168 since 1900 and an increase of 31,753 or 97.8 per cent. since 1907 when a special census showed 32,452.

Oklahoma county, in which Oklahoma city is located increased from 25,915 in 1900 and 55,849 in 1907 to 85,232 in 1910.

Chicago, July 26.—Carver Remington, 60 years old, a son of Samuel Remington, and a nephew of the late Levi Z. Leiter attempted to end his life by shooting in a downtown tailorshop today. Although wounded in the left side near the heart, Remington probably will recover.

YOUNG MYER FAILS AGAIN.

Millionaire Corporal Could Not Pass Examination for Navy.

Washington, July 23.—Albert J. Myer, known while at Fort Myer as the young millionaire corporal, grand-son of General Myer, who led in the establishment of the United States Signal Service, and of the Weather Bureau, and in whose honor Fort Myer, Va., was named, has failed to measure up to the physical standard required of applicants for positions in the United States navy. Young Myer, who failed recently in his ambition to gain renown in the military branch of the service, said failure having been due, it was said, to the fact that too much playing the part of "social lion" in the national capital unfitted him to pass his army examinations, then decided to try for a place as assistant paymaster in the navy.

He passed the mental part of the test, but failed in the physical. When weighed it was found that he could not tip the scales at more than 140 pounds, whereas the requirement is 170.

Bristol, Va., July 25.—Representative C. B. Slemp, of the Ninth Virginia district today received from Theodore Roosevelt's secretary, Frank Harper, announcement that Colonel Roosevelt's will stop at Bristol for an hour or so on the morning of Friday, October 7th, on his way to Knoxville."

ESTRADA Re-TAKES TOWNS.

Nicaraguan Situation Still Serious—No Resistance.

Bluefields, Nic., July 25.—Prinzapulia and Rio Grande, which were occupied by the Madriz forces a few weeks ago, have been re-taken by the Estrada adherents without resistence.

General Mena reports the capture by Col. Mancilla of an excellent strategic position before the town of Acoyapa. This was accomplished with small loss to the provisionals, who took a number of cannons, rifles and prisoners. The position is on a hill at Santa Rosa, not more than 2,000 yards from Acoyapa, where an important engagement may be expected any time. The United States protected cruiser Tacoma has returned from Cape Gracias, to which port she proceeded on the first rumors of trouble there. It was not necessary for the Tacoma to land marines at Cape Gracias, as all was quiet.

DUDIE ARCHDALE WINNER.

Took $10,000 Paper Mills Stake With Little Trouble.

Kalamazoo, Mich., July 27.—Dudie Archdale, the favorite, had comparatively little trouble in winning the $10,000 paper mills stake for 2:11 class trotters, the classic event of the Kalamazoo grand curcuit race meet, in which a field of 14 horses contested this afternoon.

S. S. S. A REAL TONIC & BLOOD PURIFIER

Any system that needs a tonic needs also a blood purifier, for it is the weakened and impure condition of the circulation that is responsible for the run-down state of health. We have only to recognize the importance of pure, rich blood in preserving health, to realize the danger of a weakened or impure circulation. Deficient blood nutriment weakens the system, and it can not resist disease like a strong robust constitution. First the body has a worn-out feeling, the appetite is fickle, energy begins to flag, the digestion is bad, etc. If the condition is not corrected at this stage more serious results are sure to follow, and sometimes a long debilitating spell of sickness is the result. S. S. S. is Nature's tonic, made of roots, herbs and barks. It is not a nerve stimulant, but a medicine that steadily builds up every portion of the system by cleansing and enriching the blood, and in this way supplying an increased amount of nourishment and resistive powers to every portion of the body. S. S. S. quiets the overstrained nerves, improves the appetite, tones up the stomach and digestion, and thoroughly enriches and purifies the blood. S. S. S. is a real tonic because it is a real blood purifier. S. S. S. contains no harmful mineral and persons of all ages can use it with the same beneficial results. Be sure to get S. S. S. for your tonic this year do not accept anything in place of it; there is nothing else "just as good" as S. S. S. You will find it all that is claimed for it.

THE SWIFT SPECIFIC CO., ATLANTA, GA

PROPOSED MEMORIAL TO BILL NYE TO BE $5,000 BLDG. AT STONEWALL JACKSON TRAINING SCHOOL

Committee Appointed by North Carolina Press Association Decides That the Lamented Humorist Shall be Honored in a Practical Manner—State Newspapers Delegated to Receive Contributions to the Cause.

The committee appointed at the recent meeting of the North Carolina Press Association to take in the matter of a State memorial to Bill Nye, met in Salisbury, Wednesday, July 6th, in formal session, and after hearing all the propositions before it unanimously decided:

1. That the memorial to the lamented humorist shall take the form of a memorial building, to be one of the group and a part of the Stonewall Jackson Training School, generally known as the State Reformatory, in Cabarrus county, near Concord.

2. That the building, furnished and equipped as the trustees of the institution may direct, to the best advantage for the rescue of errant boys, shall cost not less than $5,000, and shall be known as the "BILL NYE MEMORIAL BUILDING."

3. That the following newspapers be designated to receive and acknowledge subscriptions to the fund for this building, said funds to be transmitted promptly to the treasurer, JOHN M. Julian, Editor of the Salisbury Post:

The Star, Wilmington.
The Observer, Charlotte.
The Evening Post, Salisbury.
The Citizen, Asheville.
The News and Observer, Raleigh.
The News, Greensboro.
The Uplift, Concord.

4. That while the committee believes that this memorial should be distinctively North Carolina's tribute to the lamented man of letters, it deems it wise, in order to ensure the prompt success of the movement, and further to permit the friends of Bill Nye outside the State an opportunity to contribute to this movement, that contributions from outside the State should be gratefully received and acknowledged, while not solicited.

The committee believes further that it made a wise and happy selection in the form of this memorial; that nothing it might have conceived would have brought greater joy to the heart of the gifted, kindly man whose memory it is designed to perpetuate than the great work of making useful citizens of wayward boys, and that were he present with us in the flesh today it would have the stamp of his approval. Furthermore the committee bespeaks the hearty co-operation of the brethren of the press especially, and all good citizens generally in this undertaking. It is a labor of love—one that has already been too long neglected, to the shame of North Carolina. Let us put our shoulders to the wheel and show to the world what North Carolina can do for the man it delights to honor.

(Signed)
JAMES M. CAINE, Chairman,
JOHN M. JULIAN, Treasurer,
R. W. VINCENT, Secretary,
ROBERT M. PHILLIPS,
ARCHIBALD H. BOYDEN,
Committee.

The Star will be glad to receive and acknowledge from day to day any contributions that may be made to the above fund.

COTTON MADE RAPID ADVANCE

Unusual Activity on the Market Caused by a Scare of Old Crop Shorts. Closed Quiet, 35 Points Higher—Conditions.

New York, July 27.—There was a sensational advance in the cotton market today which was started by a scare of old crop shorts, but which soon extended to the new crop positions in view of an increasingly bullish view as to the probable showing of the August Bureau and the continued dry, hot weather in the Southwest.

The close was firm with prices showing a net gain of 23 to 53 points. The market opened steady at a decline of 2 points on the old crop, but unchanged to 8 points higher on the new in response to firm cables, and the failure of the weather map to confirm the reports of rains in Texas which had been circulated in the market late on Tuesday.

One of the big New Orleans bull leaders bid for large blocks of July on the call and this started covering by a belated short interest, which on purchases of about 1,000 bales, ran the prices up from 15.35 to 16.10, or 73 points above the closing figures of the previous day. Later July reacted some 60 points from the top and became very quiet, but the new crop continued very active and firm on the Western belt forecast calling for general clear weather and reports of very high temperatures in Oklahoma. The highest point was reached just before the close, when October sold at 13.64 and December at 13.51, or 33 to 34 points net higher. Last prices were only a shade off from the best under realizing and, as had been the case earlier in the day, there was evidently a big buying power around the ring on even moderate recessions. Bullish reports on the crops of Mississippi and Louisiana, published by a prominent local authority, and rumors that the early figures of the National Ginners' Association would be very bullish on the condition of the crop east of the Mississippi river tended to promote expectations of a very bullish August Bureau next Tuesday, and while much of the day's demand came from fresh speculative buyers, it was believed that trade interests were buyers on all the soft spots. The early scare of July shorts was attributed to delayed shipments from the South, but a good deal of cotton is here and being prepared for delivery before the end of the month.

Receipts at the ports today 2,303 bales against 11,844 last week and 649 last year; for the week 45,000 bales against 56,441 last wek and 18,401 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 451 bales against 92 last year and at Houston 108 bales against 80 last year.

Cotton: Spot closed quiet 35 points higher; middling uplands 15.85; gulf 16.10; sales 9,350.

Cotton futures opened steady and closed firm.

VIOLENT ADVANCE OF STOCKS

Prices Advanced by Leaps and Bounds—Private Settlements Made It Unnecessary to Continue Sacrificing Securities.

New oYrk, July 27.—The action of the stock market underwent a violent reversal from yesterday, with prices advancing by leaps and bounds where, yesterday, they were breaking without sign of resistance. Speculative sentiment underwent a corresponding transformation, but with the usual confusion between cause and effect.

The extensive liquidation accomplished yesterday afforded some relief in itself and to this was added, according to current rumor, some important private settlements by which embarrassed accounts were taken over and the necessity thus avoided of continuing the sacrifice of securities in a market which the demand had become well nigh paralyzed. In place of the supopsed widespread sources of selling based on general discouragement with the situation of trade and mney markets, there emerged the conviction that a confined area represented the limits of the trouble.

A renewed slump in Rock Island preferred to 54 early in the day was accepted as one index of the source of the difficulty. Many rumors became current of shifting of large newly acquired holdings of various railroad stocks reaching out from the Eastern anchracite and trunk line field and into Western and Southwestern connections in the pursuance of a ambitious project of extension and merging.

In addition to this source of weakness it was surmised that over extension in the high capitalization of various new copper properties small individuals, was in process of correction. The maturity of loans in which the securities involved in these ventures figured as collateral was supposed to have given the occasion for the severe curtailment. The perception of these special causes today put a new face on the demoralized appearance of things yesterday.

So severe a decline as has been witnessed in the last ten days is accompanied inevitably by a large expansion of the short interest in a market. Usually nothing checks this short selling but an actual turn in the price movement itself. With that effected the demand becomes urgent. Such was the case today, the demand from uncovered shorts making up a substantial part of the large demand and the up-bidding of prices. Testimony was offered by some of the commission houses of a material growth of investment demand as well, attracted by the low level to which prices had fallen and the inviting rate of return afforded in consequence by dividend payments.

The wild advance in the cotton market failed to destroy the increased confidence manifested in the stock market. The hazardous state of a part of the corn crop also lost its influence for the time being.

Bonds were strnger; total sales par value $2,890,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales stocks today were 955,400 shares.

THE GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, July 27.—Decisions by millers not to touch wheat unless lower than July option brought down quotations today. Reports of good demand for export at Seaboard and Duluth proved inadequate as an offset even when reinforced by news that threshing results in Kansas were slight. The market close was at a net decline of 1-4 to 3-4 to 7-8. Corn finished 1-8 to 1-4 lower to 5-8 higher and oats 1-2 to 3-8 to 7-8 down with provisions ranging from 12 1-2 advance to 5c decline.

COTTON MARKET BULLISH.

Good Demand on Excellent Showing of Liverpool—Conditions.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, July 28.—With an excellent showing in Liverpool and under the continued influence of poor crop conditions our market turned strong and under a good demand advanced with only slight recessions to the close. In addition Manchester had better tone, and general private estimates to be made, were reported as bullish. General business is broadening, and the market is much less one sided, the professional element is quiet for the moment, and the crop conditions are the dominant influences. The nearness of the August report is creating an averseness to the short side despite the shrinkage in Wall street values, as the high temperatures over a large area of Texas, with lack of moisture makes nervousness. The advance on ocvering was sharp and well maintained.

REPUBLICANS ARE ACTIVE.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., July 27.—The Republicans in this county are very active, and report says they are organizing for a vigorous campaign, being encouraged by the split at the Wrightsville Beach convention. It is reported that Hon. I. B. Tucker, census supervisor for this district, will probably be called on to make the race for Congress.

A Star representative saw Mr. Tucker this morning and asked him about the report. He replied:

"We Republicans have not as yet selected our candidate, but we have plenty of available timber and will in due season. With you Democrats divided as you are, I see no reason why we should not elect our candidate, and believe we will. There are between 19,000 and 20,000 votes in the Sixth district, and when our members see that the Democrats are split, they will go to work, and we can safely count on polling between seven and eight thousand votes. It is probable that the Democratic vote will be nearly evenly divided between Godwin and Clark, but even if there are a thousand difference, our candidate can be safely landed. I do not think you Democrats will get together, for neither nominee of the late convention will give way for the other. You may cry 'Peace, peace,' but there will be no peace until either Mr. Godwin or Mr. Clark is defeated at the polls. In all sincerity, I think the chances for the Republicans to elect a Congressman from this district is very bright.

"We intend to nominate candidates for every State and county office, and I believe we will win in Columbus county. As the campaign warms up the county candidates must declare themselves either for Clark or Godwin, and with this split, all doubtful or weak-kneed Republicans will be encouraged to come back into the party, and we will make a fight all along the line."

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Mount Olive, N. C., July 27.—This community was saddened yesterday morning about 10 o'clock when it was announced that Mr. John M. Cox had quietly passed away at his home here. Mr. Cox had been in feeble health for several years, and was confined to his bed about two weeks before the end came, and his death was not unexpected. He was born in Wayne county, January 19, 1841, and was, therefore, in his 69th year. Deceased is survived by his wife, formerly Mary F. Broadhurst, daughter of the late Henry Broadhurst, of Duplin county, and two sons, Mr. Henry E. Cox, of Portsmouth, Va., and Mr. A. G. Cox, of Mount Olive, together with several brothers, all of whom have the sincere sympathy of a large circle of relatives and friends. Before coming to Mount Olive in 1886, Mr. Cox lived for several years on his farm in Duplin county, and although he lived here practically a quarter of a century, it was remarked on the streets several times yesterday that no one ever heard of Mr. Cox being charged with any wrongful act. He was thoroughly clean in his moral life, and a true and consistent Christian.

The funeral took place this afternoon at 4 o'clock, and was conducted by the pastor of the deceased, Rev. Peter McIntyre, of the Presbyterian church, with interment in Maple Grove cemetery.

Col. Wm. T. Dortch, of the Goldsboro bar, was here on professional business yesterday.

Prof. C. R. Spencer, the newly-elected superintendent of the Mount Olive Graded Schools, and formerly of the Faison Male Academy, of Faison, N. C., is moving to Mount Olive this week.

Among those on the sick list here this week are Attorney John D. Langston, Mr. Clarence Hood, cashier of the Citizens' Bank, and Mr. Sam J. Roberts, who are confined to their homes with slight indisposition. We hope for them a speedy restoration to their usual good health, so that they may return to their respective places of business.

Mr. Gurney P. Hood, assistant cashier of the Bank of Wayne, of Goldsboro, was in the city yesterday to see his brother, Mr. Clarence Hood.

Mr. Fred L. Rich, of Duplin county, after a lingering illness for nearly a year, died last Sunday and was buried Monday afternoon at the family burying ground near his home. He was about 36 years old, and is survived by his wife and one or two children, who have the sympathy of the community in their bereavement.

Mr. Went W. Pierce, formerly of Warsaw, who recently obtained license to practice law in this State, and also in Virginia, and who has selected Goldsboro for the practice of his chosen profession, spent yesterday in Mt. Olive on business. Mr. Pierce is an exceedingly clever and popular young man, and leaves a good impression wherever he goes. We wish him unlimited success in his field of labor.

Cantaloupe shipments from here continue to be large, and the prices remain satisfactory to the farmers and growers.

A game of baseball between Mount Olive and Kenly, of the "Amateur League", is scheduled for the diamond here this afternoon, but this letter will be mailed too early to give the scores and result.

TRAIN DEMOLISHED CAR.

Twelve Persons Were Injured in Accident at Cleveland.

Cleveland, O., July 27.—Twelve people were injured, one probably fatally, when a St. Clair Avenue street car was struck by an eastward bound Pennsylvania train at the 38th street grade crossing this evening. The street car was hurled from the tracks and smashed into splinters.

The accident occurred shortly after 6 o'clock and although it was the rush hour, there were only 11 passengers on board the car, every one of whom were more or less severely injured. Miss Catharine Hogan, 25 years old, had her breast and shoulders lacerated and received internal injuries which may prove fatal. All the others will recover.

Rush Hinkley, the motorman, declares that the gates at the crossing were open and that he received no warning of the approaching train. When the collision occurred he was hurled from his platform.

A wrecking train cleared the track and the train was allowed to proceed after about an hour's delay.

NOMIS STUCK IN MUD.

Second Accident to Steamer Before Her Arrival.

New Orleans, July 27.—After subduing a fire in her aft hold off the coast of Florida last Saturday only to run into a mud bank at the mouth of the Mississippi last night, the Southern Pacific steamer Momis arrived at New Orleans today. The Momis exhibited no evidence of any damage. She brought 60 passengers.

unfortunate breach in the party, this to be sent out in due time.

Mr. Clark later furnished to the press the following copy of a letter which he stated had been formally mailed to Mr. Godwin anu which is in reply to the propositions contained above.

Mr. Clark's Reply.

Wilmington, N. C., July 27th, 1910.

Hon. H. L. Godwin, Dunn, N. C.

My Dear Sir: I acknowledge receipt of your letter of the 26th, handed to me by Mr. George H. Bellamy on my arrival in this city today, and have noted carefully your suggestion to refer the determination as to who is the regular nominee of the Democratic party for Congress in the Sixth Congressional District to a primary.

In reply I will say that I have not the slightest doubt of the regularity of my nomination, and if I had I would not now accept such nomination. The machinery of the party for holding primaries is the same today that it was when the recent primaries were held, and if primaries were again held they would be held in the same manner and under the same plan of organization of the Democratic party, if the plan of organization is to be followed; and .. is without precedent for the defeated candidate to ask that he have a second trial before the people.

Your own county and others supporting you, did not hold a primary in the recent election, and if precinct meetings were fair in your county, they were fair in all of the other counties, and there is no reason why we should hold another election under the same plan of organization.

Further, if a new primary were called, we would have no right to exclude the candidates who have already been in the race, or any new ones who might enter the race, and a second primary would cause more strife in the Democratic party than we already have.

I notice that you say, "that the arbitrament of the State Executive Committee, or of the Central Committee, whatever might be their decisions, could not be satisfactory to both of us."

In reply will say that this does not apply to me; on the contrary, I will state that any ruling of the Executive Committee or of the Central Committee on the matter, would be entirely satisfactory to me, and I would abide by such decision, and if you should decide that your case would justify an appeal to either of these bodies, I will gladly submit to their ruling.

I believe that the welfare of the Democratic party in the Sixth Congressional District, and in the State of North Carolina, is of greater importance than the personal interest of either of us, and I assure you that if you had been the nominee of the Convention, you would have had my hearty support and assistance in the coming campaign, and if the Democratic Executive Committee of the State should so decide, you will also have my hearty support.

Very truly yours,
O. L. CLARK.

Mr. Clark having declined a primary upon the grounds stated in his communication, it is now "up to" Mr. Godwin to say whether or not he will accept intervention by the State Committee, with the likelihood that whether or not the arbitrament is accepted, the committee will take cognizance of the situation upon its own initiative at the called meeting on August 1st.

Following this exchange of courtesies between the candidates, both sides apparently were resting on their oars last night and enjoying the breezes of Wrightsville Beach at the Seashore Hotel. Before the candidates and their friends return to their homes, still other communications are likely to be exchanged in an exhaustion of effort to settle all differences amicably which it is hoped can be done.

Letter From Mayor Wright.

While the candidates were busy yesterday Mayor Thos. H. Wright, of the hustling municipality of Wrightsville Beach, was busy explaining the presence of those policemen at Wrightsville Beach about which so much has been made in the various communications and news reports of the mill at Lumina last week. Mr. Wright issues the following card, which he requests be published in justice to all concerned:

I, Thomas H. Wright, Mayor of Wrightsville Beach, N. C., do hereby certify that the statement made in the papers that the policemen present at the recent convention of the Sixth Congressional District were sent there by Mr. W. E. Springer, chairman of the Police Commission of Wilmington, is entirely incorrect. As mayor of said Wrightsville Beach, and in anticipation of the necessity therefor, and in order to preserve order in the convention, I made a request to the proper authorities of the City of Wilmington one week in advance of the convention to supply me with proper force for the purpose if I called for same, and, on my own initiative and authority I made such request and obtained four officers and swore them in as Beach Officers when the disorderly scenes of the convention, in my judgment, rendered their presence necessary, and no one else is responsible therefor. The officers continued in service during the regular convention, and, as I am informed, were called upon by the chairman of the second convention to preserve order in said convention.

THOMAS H. WRIGHT,
Mayor Wrightsville Beach, N. C.

MR. CLIFFORD'S STATEMENT.

Logic of His Reasoning Not Sound—Gifted in Narrative.

Editor Star:—The statement of Mr. J. C. Clifford, Mr. Godwin's manager, in your issue of this morning, seems to be more gifted in narrative than sound in reasoning. Mr. Clifford says:

"The roll of counties was called and all responded to the roll call, whereupon I made a point of order that two of the counties, according to the returns in the hands of the secretary, were without representation in the convention, these returns showing that the delegates from these two counties had not been elected by the convention, as clearly required by Section 44 of the plan of organization, making the point that they had been appointed by another plan for the purpose of suppressing the strength of Hon. H. L. Godwin. I attempted, and am satisfied, that I made it clear, that my objection was not technical but was designed to refer the entire matter as to both counties to the credentials committee to the end that the strength of the respective candidates in the said two counties might be accurately determined and delegates seated accordingly. The chairman (Bellamy) sustained this point of order, etc."

If the two counties in question, Cumberland and New Hanover, were without representation in the convention, how could a reference of the matter to the credentials committee supply the omission? If these counties were without representation in the convention, then, there were no delegates from these counties; if there were no delegates from these counties how could the credentials committee determine the strength of the respective candidates? Is there any provision in the party plan of organization authorizing a credentials committee to create delegates when a county has refused or failed to exercise its right of representation? If not, by what process of logic do Mr. Godwin's supporters maintain the right of an unrepresented county to vote for Mr. Godwin and deny the right to a competitor on the ground that the county is without representation? Mr. Bellamy ruled Cumberland and New Hanover counties out when they were against Mr. Godwin and ruled them in when they were for him—because the votes of these counties were necessary to Mr. Godwin's nomination. This is the philosophy of these intellectual gymnastics.

MR. PIPPIN SPECIAL ATTORNEY.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., July 27.—Another change in railroad circles, just effective and of interest to a large number over the first division of the Atlantic Coast Line is the promotion of Mr. Frank L. Pippin, of Enfield, from the position of special agent for the company to the job of special attorney for the first division. Mr. Pippin made his home in this city for a major part of the time while he was special agent, and will continue to make this city his headquarters. The news of Mr. Pippin's promotion will be welcomed by a large number of friends over this and other States, as there has not been a more popular special agent in many years, and one with a larger circle of friends.

Mr. Joseph H. Saunders returned yesterday after several months spent in Kentucky with the Burley Tobacco Co. Mr. Saunders is a former resident of this city and returned here to ally himself with the tobacco firm of Braswell & Levy.

Friends will be glad to learn that Mr. Richard T. Fountain of the local bar, is again able to be at his post of duty after having been confined the past six weeks or two months on account of typhoid. Mr. Fountain was ill at the home of his parents at Speed in Edgecombe county.

SITUATION IN HONDURAS

Bonilla Men Expected to Make First Assault Today.

New Orleans, July 27.—Sympathizers of Manuel Bonilla in the local Central American colony still express hope that the revolutionists in Spanish Honduras will survive the setbacks that they originally met in their uprising on the north coast.

They hinted tonight that Bonilla, who was last reported off the coast with two schooners loaded with men and arms would make the first serious assault within the next 48 hours. The first uprising in Port Cortez and Ceiba are declared to have been premature. Davila, they assert, will be deserted by a large majority of the citizens as soon as Bonilla commences active operations. On the other hand the office on the Honduran consul general here is issuing further reports on the peace which President Davila is declared to have established. These announcements declare that the government has the country well in hand.

NAVAL RESERVES AT NORFOLK

Come From Several States to Hampton Roads For Cruise.

Norfolk, Va., July 27.—The monitor Ozark having aboard the District of Columbia naval militia which came to the Norfolk navy yard last night for supplies and fresh water as the result of a disarrangement of her condensers, sailed late today joining in Hampton Roads the Isle de Cuba, having aboard the Maryland Naval militia, the Machias, having aboard the Connecticut naval reserves and the Chicago, having aboard the Massachusetts reserves. The Machias and Chicago arrived in the roads today from Gardiners Bay. Following their arrival a number of the Connecticut and Massachusetts reserves were permitted to return in cutters to Cape Henry, where they landed and ascended the great sand dunes at that point and also visited the spot marked as the first landing place of the original English settlers under Neport in 1607.

BRYAN DECLINES TO TALK

Referred His Interviewers to His Convention Speech.

Grand Island, Neb., July 27.—W. J. Bryan declined today to speak of last night's occurrences at the Democratic State Convention, except to refer interviewers to his convention speech. It was apparent he had anticipated the action of the convention, and if he felt any chagrin he did not manifest it after the adjournment.

A close friend of the former leader, however, stated, Mr. Bryan's particular disappointment was in the bolting from his standard of many men who had been his ardent supporters in the past. No intimation of his political plans could be obtained from Mr. Bryan or his friends.

SOUTHERN NATIONAL BANK

THE FARMERS' UNION.

Resolutions by North Carolina Division at Raleigh—Education.

(Special Star Telegram.)

Raleigh, N. C., July 27.—The North Carolina Division of the National Farmers' Educational and Co-operative Union adopted resolutions on a full observance of the State law providing agricultural instruction in elementary public schools; also declared in favor of an appropriation by the next Legislature of at least $50,000 in State aid in the establishment of county farm life high schools, through apportionments of $2,500 by the State where the county provides farm buildings and equipment and an equal amount towards maintenance. The Union determined to undertake for tobacco farmers the establishment of tobacco dry houses for handling leaf tobacco. Another resolution calls on all the North Carolina delegation in Congress to oppose a reduced tax on oleomargerine, colored to deceive the people as butter.

The public session this morning was devoted to an address by Dr. D. H. Hill, president of the North Carolina A. & M. College. His theme was agricultural education with the dominant idea that there should be particular attention paid to the teaching of agriculture in the rural schools, this applying to the elementary schools as well as the rural high school, these two leading up to the A. & M. College as the finishing institution. He heartily endorsed the proposition of Dr. Joyner, State superintendent of public instruction, in his address last night, declaring for a movement to secure a $50,000 appropriation to be used as State aid in establishing county farm life schools, one or more to a county with the State appropriating $2,500 and the county $2,500 and providing in addition the farm, the buildings and equipment for the schools.
